Allfloors Trade Centre Expands Wood Flooring Services in Maidstone - Offering Premier Flooring Solutions

September 17, 2024

Kent, England - September 17, 2024 -
Allfloors Trade Centre has announced the expansion of its wood flooring services in Maidstone. They aim to provide high-quality flooring solutions to a broader range of customers. With over 100 years of combined industry experience, Allfloors Trade Centre knows how to meet the needs of both residential and commercial clients.

The company specializes in supplying and installing a variety of flooring options. These include solid wood, oak, parquet, hardwood, and engineered wood flooring. Each type has unique features, allowing customers to choose what best fits their style and needs. John Pitt, the CEO of Allfloors Trade Centre, said, "Our goal is to provide our customers with the best flooring solutions that not only enhance the look of their spaces but also meet their practical needs. We are excited to extend our wood flooring offerings in Maidstone to better serve our clients."

Allfloors Trade Centre offers a full range of services to ensure a smooth flooring installation experience. This includes surveying the site, giving free estimates, design consultation, and complete fitting services. This approach ensures customers get consistent support from the initial consultation to the final installation.

One of the key services provided by Allfloors Trade Centre is their domestic flooring offering. This includes a complete package of surveying, estimating, advice, and providing samples. This ensures that residential clients receive a tailored solution that fits their specific needs. Plus, the company promises to beat any written quotes, ensuring customers get the best value for their money.

For commercial clients, Allfloors Trade Centre offers practical and adaptable designs suitable for various industries. From office spaces to retail environments, the company ensures a high-quality finish that holds up in high-traffic areas. The company's commercial flooring services provide durability and longevity, meeting the specific needs of businesses.

Besides wood flooring, Allfloors Trade Centre also supplies and installs carpet, vinyl, luxury vinyl tile (LVT), laminate, and artificial grass. This variety allows the company to cater to a wide range of preferences and requirements. Their full fitting service ensures that all flooring solutions are installed with accuracy and care, giving customers a durable and visually pleasing result.

Another notable service offered by Allfloors Trade Centre is their design consultation. The company's design team helps customers find inspiration and choose the best flooring options for their spaces. This personalized approach ensures that each client's unique needs and preferences are met.

Allfloors Trade Centre is also committed to customer satisfaction by offering aftercare services. This means clients get ongoing support to maintain the quality and look of their new flooring. The company's aftercare services include recommended cleaning techniques and maintenance tips, helping customers keep their floors in good condition.

John Pitt added, "We believe that our comprehensive approach to flooring solutions sets us apart in the industry. From the initial consultation to the final fitting and aftercare, we are dedicated to delivering exceptional service and quality to our clients."

To keep its customers informed about the latest trends and advancements in flooring, Allfloors Trade Centre maintains a blog. This resource provides valuable insights and tips, helping clients make informed decisions about their flooring projects.
