Cardinal Compliance Consultants Unveils New Website to Enhance Client Experience

September 18, 2024

September 18, 2024 -
TOLEDO, OH, September 11, 2024 - Cardinal Compliance Consultants, a leading provider of environmental health and safety solutions, today announced the launch of its newly redesigned website at https://cardinalhs.net. The new site aims to improve user experience, showcase the company's comprehensive services, and provide valuable resources for businesses seeking to enhance their safety practices.

The revamped website features a modern, user-friendly design that reflects Cardinal Compliance Consultants' commitment to innovation and excellence in the field of occupational health and safety. With enhanced navigation and a wealth of informative content, the site serves as a hub for businesses looking to ensure regulatory compliance and create safer work environments.

"Our new website is a direct response to the evolving needs of our clients and the industries we serve," said Richard Barcum, President and Owner of Cardinal Compliance Consultants. "We've designed it to be a comprehensive resource that not only showcases our services but also educates and empowers businesses to take proactive steps in safeguarding their workforce."

Key features of the new website include:

Detailed service descriptions covering the full spectrum of Cardinal's offerings, from industrial hygiene to safety staffing solutions

An industry-specific section highlighting Cardinal's expertise across various sectors, including industrial, manufacturing, healthcare, and construction

A resource center with articles that bring you trending occupational health and safety news in a simplified format, cautionary tales and lessons learned from the field, as well as tips and strategies for safety leaders on critical EHS topics

A user-friendly contact form for quick service inquiries and consultation requests

The launch of the new website comes at a time when workplace safety is more critical than ever. With OSHA regulations constantly evolving and businesses facing new challenges in the post-pandemic world, Cardinal Compliance Consultants' enhanced online presence provides a valuable tool for companies seeking expert guidance.

"We believe that access to information is crucial in creating safer workplaces," added Barcum. "Our new website not only makes it easier for clients to understand and access our services but also serves as an educational platform for anyone looking to improve their organization's safety culture."

Since its founding in 2014, Cardinal Compliance Consultants has established itself as a leader in the EHS consulting industry, serving clients in 29 states, 6 countries, and 1 U.S. territory. The company's team of certified professionals brings over 150 years of combined experience to every project, ensuring high-quality and comprehensive solutions tailored to each client's unique needs.

The launch of the new website underscores Cardinal Compliance Consultants' commitment to innovation and client service. As the company continues to expand its reach and capabilities, the website will serve as a dynamic platform, regularly updated with the latest industry insights and service offerings.
