January 19, 2016

January 19, 2016 -
Successful Marketing Solutions, based in Inglewood, California, have released their new destination picks of the week. All these destinations are also available at excellent prices, so people will be able to have the holiday of a lifetime. Many of the destinations also have all inclusive resorts attached to them. People are encouraged to sign up for membership in order to be kept up to date with more destinations.

Robert Boyd, Sr. from Successful Marketing Solutions says: "We want people to move away from booking trips. Rather, we want them to embark on journeys. The world is full of amazing places and there is magic to be found everywhere, whether you like busy cities or secluded beaches. Our destinations of the week list shows the variety of locations to choose from and we really encourage everyone to embark on the journey of a lifetime."

This week's destinations include London, Sidney, Taipei, Guatemala City, Frankfurt, Washington DC, Orlando, Chicago, and Boston. Those who sign up for the all-inclusive travel blog will be able to find the best deals on these destinations, as well as being kept up to date with every weekly recommendation. People are recommended to sign up for the blog so that they never miss on a good opportunity for an amazing journey.

The company has also launched its Facebook page. The page will also list all the various destinations, as well as other information about these places and all inclusive resorts. Furthermore, it will be an opportunity for people to share their experiences during their vacations, as well as review the services and information they have received from Successful Marketing Solutions. "They say that life is a journey, not a destination," says Mark P. "Well I say that it is both. The destination that we chose thanks to the weekly top picks was absolutely perfect, but we also experienced what can only be describe as a true journey in terms of getting there and being there. What an experience. I'm so glad I found this recommendation as I really had the holiday of a lifetime."

The company looks forward to releasing next week's top destinations.
