M&H Towing & Recovery Raises Crucial Funds for Breast Cancer Awareness at Turn The Grandstand Pink Event

September 30, 2024

September 30, 2024 -
The Montrose County Event Center and M&H Towing & Recovery recently hosted a special fundraiser during the CPRA Finals to support breast cancer awareness. The event, called Turn The Grandstand Pink, aimed to raise money for the Bosom Buddies chapter, a local group dedicated to helping people affected by breast cancer in Montrose.

Held on Saturday, September 28th, at the Montrose County Event Center, the event saw participants and spectators of the CPRA Finals wearing special edition pink t-shirts. These shirts were available for a minimum donation of $5, with all the money going directly to Bosom Buddies. This organization offers support to breast cancer patients and survivors, providing them with various resources and emotional backing.

One of the standout features of the event was a matching fundraiser. Several local sponsors pledged to match donations up to $3,500, which meant that every contribution had double the impact. These sponsors played a crucial role in making the fundraiser a success with their generosity.

Pryce Hoey, CEO of M&H Towing & Recovery, remarked, "Breast cancer awareness is a cause that resonates deeply with us and our community. By supporting the Bosom Buddies chapter, we aim to provide more resources and aid to those battling this disease. The outpouring of support from our community members has been phenomenal."

The event wrapped up with a memorable presentation. Representatives from M&H Towing & Recovery brought the Bosom Buddies team into the arena to present a check symbolizing the funds raised. This moment highlighted the community's collective efforts and commitment.

The partnership between the Montrose County Event Center, M&H Towing & Recovery, and local sponsors demonstrated the community's dedication to important social causes. The funds raised will support Bosom Buddies in their mission to offer help, resources, and emotional support to breast cancer patients and their families. On their website, you can find more about their services, including Roadside Assistance Montrose, Colorado.

A Montrose resident who attended the event shared, "It was inspiring to see everyone come together for such an important cause. Wearing pink and supporting Bosom Buddies felt like a small but significant way to help those in need."

The community's effort and generosity made Turn The Grandstand Pink a success. The event not only raised funds but also increased awareness about breast cancer, showcasing the strength of community action.

If you missed the event but still want to contribute, M&H Towing & Recovery is offering the special edition pink t-shirts on their website, with all proceeds going to benefit Bosom Buddies.

Pryce Hoey added, "The fight against breast cancer is ongoing, and community support is vital. Events like these remind us of the difference we can make together. We are grateful to our sponsors and everyone who came out and made this event a success."

The positive response and significant funds raised from Turn The Grandstand Pink highlight what can be achieved when a community unites for a shared cause. The Montrose County Event Center and M&H Towing & Recovery plan to host similar initiatives in the future, continually showing their dedication to the Montrose community and beyond.
