

Endless Energy Recognized As Top Ductless Contractor in Marlborough, Massachusetts

October 09, 2024

Marlborough, Massachusetts - October 09, 2024 -
Endless Energy has earned recognition as the top ductless HVAC contractor in Marlborough Massachusetts, by the Ductless Directory, a nationally recognized consumer resource. This honor shows how dedicated the company is to providing efficient and high-quality ductless heating and cooling solutions for both homeowners and businesses. With over 40 years of service in the Massachusetts area, Endless Energy offers a wide range of HVAC, plumbing, and electrical services.

The company plays a big role in the HVAC industry, especially for their expertise in ductless heat pumps. These systems are becoming a popular choice for home climate control because they use less energy compared to traditional methods, they offer significant cost savings savings, improved home comfort and may qualify for incredible rebates via the Mass Save heat pump rebate program.

"Hiring the right ductless installer has never been more important. People want to enjoy all the benefits of a ductless heat pump and don't realize how important the contractor is. Every ductless installation is a custom installation. Our techs are trained to do three important things: match the right unit to your needs, ensure proper product placement, and guarantee a professional installation so you can enjoy years of home comfort," said Matt Kidd, CEO of Endless Energy.

The Ductless Directory is an authoritative consumer resource that helps homeowners find reliable contractors experienced in installing ductless mini split systems. Michelle LaFrance, the founder of DuctlessDirectory.com, praised Endless Energy for their dedication to their clients and expertise in the field. "I chose Endless Energy because of their extraordinary commitment to ductless heat pumps. The knowledge and expertise they deliver are exceptional. Matt and his team are true professionals and demonstrate true care to the clients they serve," remarked LaFrance.

Endless Energy excels not only in their technical skills but also in their customer-focused approach. They ensure that each project meets high standards of quality and efficiency. As an approved Mass Save® partner and a Home Performance Contractor they offer comprehensive heating, cooling, and electrical services. This partnership allows them to provide homeowners with incentives and rebates for energy-efficient upgrades.

For those thinking about switching to ductless heating and cooling systems, Endless Energy provides free home performance evaluations as a Mass Save Home Performance contractor. This service includes a detailed assessment of a home's energy use and recommendations for improvements. "It's easy to find out more. As a Mass Save Home Performance contractor, we can do a no-cost evaluation of your home. We'll show you how you can save money, save energy, and increase your home comfort. Then we'll provide heat pump options that match the needs of your home," added Kidd.

The company's expertise is further highlighted by their many certifications. They are a Mitsubishi Elite Diamond Contractor, which signifies their top-level partnership with Mitsubishi. This certification is given only to contractors who meet high standards of training, customer satisfaction, and performance. Endless Energy is also a premier partner with other leading heat pump manufacturers such as LG and Fujitsu.

Serving the broader Massachusetts area, Endless Energy covers regions such as MetroWest, Central Massachusetts, North Shore, South Shore, and Greater Boston. Their services include heating and cooling installations and repairs, plumbing, electrical work, and home energy assessments. Their goal is to reduce energy waste while maximizing comfort and savings for their clients.

The company guarantees that all services are performed by their skilled team of local technicians, electricians, and auditors, rather than subcontracting work. This ensures consistent quality and service, earning them an A+ rating with the Better Business Bureau. Customers often highlight their prompt and efficient service in positive reviews and testimonials.

Endless Energy's recognition as the Top Ductless HVAC Contractor in Marlborough Massachusetts by DuctlessDirectory.com shows their dedication to excellence and customer satisfaction. Their ongoing commitment to innovation, sustainability, and growth sets them apart in the energy solutions industry.
