October 04, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

DFW Permanent Outdoor Lighting has announced the launch of a new service, offering traditional Christmas light hanging for homeowners and businesses in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Known for their expertise in permanent outdoor lighting installations, the company is now expanding its services to include professional Christmas light hanging to meet the growing demand for festive lighting solutions during the holiday season. This new service is designed to provide customers with beautifully installed Christmas lights, bringing a festive and magical ambiance to their homes and commercial properties without the hassle of doing it themselves.

As the holiday season approaches, many people look forward to decorating their homes with Christmas lights, but the process of hanging lights can be time-consuming and challenging. DFW Permanent Outdoor Lighting aims to take the stress out of this annual tradition by offering professional Christmas light hanging services that are efficient, safe, and tailored to each client's specific needs. With their team of experienced installers, the company ensures that every light display is installed with precision and care, creating an eye-catching holiday display that enhances the beauty of the property.

Phil Hurlbut, owner of DFW Permanent Outdoor Lighting, expressed his excitement about the new service offering. "We're thrilled to be adding traditional Christmas light hanging to our services this year. Our goal is to help our clients enjoy the holiday season without the hassle and risk of installing Christmas lights themselves. With our expertise in outdoor lighting, we can create stunning displays that will make any home or business stand out during the holidays," said Hurlbut.

The traditional Christmas light hanging service includes full-service installation, ensuring that all lights are securely hung and properly spaced for the best visual impact. The company's team will also take care of any necessary adjustments during the holiday season to ensure that the display continues to shine brightly. This attention to detail is one of the reasons why DFW Permanent Outdoor Lighting is trusted by so many customers in the DFW area for their outdoor lighting needs.

In addition to installation, the service also includes the removal of Christmas lights after the holiday season is over, making it a convenient option for those who want to avoid the time-consuming task of taking down and storing decorations. This full-service approach allows clients to enjoy the beauty of their Christmas lights without worrying about any of the logistics. Whether clients are looking for a simple and elegant design or a more elaborate display, DFW Permanent Outdoor Lighting offers a range of options to suit any style or budget.

DFW Permanent Outdoor Lighting has built a reputation in the Dallas-Fort Worth area for their professional outdoor lighting installations, and the introduction of traditional Christmas light hanging is a natural extension of their services. The company's expertise in lighting design and installation allows them to create custom holiday displays that reflect the unique character of each property. By working closely with their clients, they ensure that the finished product exceeds expectations, delivering a festive atmosphere that families and visitors will enjoy throughout the holiday season.

The new service caters to both residential and commercial properties, offering solutions for homes, businesses, and public spaces that want to make a statement during the holidays. From small, intimate displays to large, eye-catching setups, DFW Permanent Outdoor Lighting has the experience and resources to handle projects of all sizes. Their team of skilled installers uses high-quality, weather-resistant materials to ensure that the Christmas lights perform reliably throughout the season, even in challenging weather conditions.

Phil Hurlbut emphasized the company's commitment to customer satisfaction, explaining that DFW Permanent Outdoor Lighting prioritizes safety, quality, and customer service with every installation. "We take great pride in the work we do, and our clients can trust that their Christmas lights will be installed safely and securely. Our team is trained to handle every aspect of the installation process, so all our clients have to do is sit back and enjoy the beauty of their holiday display," said Hurlbut.

As the holiday season draws closer, DFW Permanent Outdoor Lighting encourages homeowners and business owners to schedule their traditional Christmas light hanging services early to secure their preferred installation dates. With high demand expected during the busy holiday season, the company is prepared to meet the needs of the community by offering flexible scheduling and accommodating last-minute requests whenever possible.

DFW Permanent Outdoor Lighting's traditional Christmas light hanging service provides a convenient and stress-free solution for anyone looking to create a festive atmosphere without the challenges of doing it themselves. With a focus on quality, customer service, and safety, the company's new offering is sure to be a popular choice for consumers wanting to make their homes and businesses shine during the holiday season.
