A recent review from a former patient, Tony, underscored the significant role that WhiteSands' staff plays in the recovery process. "Best staff in recovery I have had a chance to work with. Jamie is great; she goes above and beyond for everyone. Treats patients like family. Awesome spirit and very attentive," Tony wrote. "Partly with her firm but fair attitude, she shows compassion for people in the program but also holds everyone accountable. All the levels of the program are designed perfectly, and to finish up with the IOP with people with such compassion and drive to help others excel in their recovery is just awesome. I give them 10 stars out of five."
