Fence and Deck Depot Earns Prestigious BBB Torch Award for Ethical Excellence in St. Louis, MO

November 05, 2024

ST. CHARLES, MO - November 05, 2024 -
Fence and Deck Depot, a standout company in its field, has been awarded the prestigious BBB Torch Award for Ethics as of October 16, 2024. This distinction is awarded annually to only ten businesses in the St. Louis area, highlighting the company's commitment to outstanding ethical standards and trust in its business practices.

The Torch Award focuses on recognizing organizations that adhere to the highest levels of trust. Earning this award meant going through a demanding application process. Companies need to show how they meet the four C's: the Character of their leadership, the Culture they foster, their dealings with Customers, and their impact on the Community.

A spokesperson from Fence and Deck Depot shared their pride in achieving this recognition, stating, ?Winning the BBB Torch Award signals to customers, employees, and all stakeholders that the company operates with high integrity. The award reinforces to our team members that our positive organizational culture and ethical behavior makes us an employer of choice in our field.?

The selection process for the Torch Award is thorough, focusing on businesses that are truly dedicated to ethical practices. Fence and Deck Depot stands out for its genuine culture, openness with customers, and positive contributions to the local community. This dedication plays a vital role in building trust and maintaining long-term relationships.

Being recognized by the BBB is more than just a pat on the back; it also brings a responsibility to keep upholding these standards. By building a culture around trust and honesty, Fence and Deck Depot shows the importance of ethical leadership and community involvement. This approach not only creates a better work environment inside the company but also strengthens its reputation with customers and the public.

Leadership at Fence and Deck Depot has played a key role in developing a workplace that values honesty and integrity. Starting from the top, this commitment influences every decision and interaction within the company, ensuring its core values shine through. Such leadership is crucial to maintaining a workplace where doing the right thing is the norm.

Creating a genuine culture has helped Fence and Deck Depot engage with employees in a meaningful way. By focusing on ethical behavior, the company has shaped an environment where employees feel appreciated and motivated to contribute to the company's goals. This atmosphere of integrity boosts employee satisfaction and staying power, making it a great place to work in its industry.

Openness in relationships with customers is another important part of Fence and Deck Depot's operations. The company makes sure that every customer interaction is honest, which leads to stronger, trust-based relationships. By clearly communicating expectations with customers, Fence and Deck Depot build partnerships that both sides value.

Community involvement is a core part of the company's mission. Fence and Deck Depot actively participates in local projects and encourages its employees to get involved too.
