

The Accountancy Practice Essex Celebrate the New Year With a New Website

January 13, 2016

January 13, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Local Business, The Accountancy Practice Essex start their New Year with a brand new website. Proud owner and manager, Kim Ovel started from working in Back office supporting Traders, Fund Managers and outside agents with queries in the City and since starting her own business, she hasn't looked back. It is safe to say that Kim is making an impact in the Accounting Industry.

The people pleasing mother expresses her passion in accounting, she says, "My Expertise is with the customer's service, liaising with the clients on a daily basis. I'm a very personable person and I love helping people, making sure they are happy with the service we are providing." It's no wonder the business is such a success. Along with their brilliant team of ten and their new customer orientated website, the company are sure to maintain the standard of service that they promise to provide.

The company began their business in a spare room and has expanded to an office in Basildon due to the overwhelming success and positive testimonials they received from their growing number of clients. Kim continues on to say, "I always knew I felt comfortable taking control of situations and getting the best outcome. I am so pleased with our new website and the growth of our success shows that our clients are pleased too!"

The new website features an easy to complete form where new and existing businesses can claim a complimentary consultation from a member of the team to discuss any aspect of business with their tax and accounting experts. Now the enquiring process is simpler and the staff can work around your needs. The form, found on the website at <http://tap-essex.com/>, includes a place to enter a preferred time for a call back to ensure that the service is at your convenience.

Whether you own a new business or an existing business, The Accountancy Practice Essex has a lot to offer. The specialised service in Accounting and Tax is certain to make a positive impact to your business. Between the website launch and the excellent staff, these Accountants in Essex are on their way to a long and rewarding journey to success.
