October 29, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Daniel Kielb, well-known for window and door screen repair in Minnesota, is excited to announce expanded services for homeowners in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area. With over six years of experience, Kielb has built a reputation for expertise, especially in mobile screen repair and installing durable pet-resistant screens. Focusing on both window and door screens, he emphasizes quality and customer satisfaction, making sure each screen looks and works perfectly.

For more information on available services, scheduling a free estimate, or to learn helpful tips on screen maintenance, residents can visit Daniel Kielb's Screen Repair website. Here, homeowners can explore detailed blog posts about common screen problems, including methods to prevent mold, guidelines for winterizing screens, and a step-by-step guide to fixing torn windows. The website also offers a contact form to ease communication and facilitate project planning.

Daniel Kielb recognizes how important a good screen is for maintaining a comfortable and safe home. Screens don't just keep out bugs and debris; they also add to a home's overall appearance. Daniel Kielb's Screen Repair takes pride in delivering services that do both—keep unwanted elements out and boost home aesthetics. It's not just about fixing screens; it's about creating living spaces where homeowners can enjoy the outdoor view without stepping outside.

Beyond standard repairs, the business shares valuable tips with the community through its blog, helping homeowners tackle screen maintenance and repairs themselves. Daniel Kielb's blog offers guidance on common issues like preventing mold and mildew and getting screens ready for Minnesota's tough winters. Such insights can prolong the life of window and door screens, helping residents save both time and money in the long run.

These new services are now available in various Minneapolis suburbs such as Anoka and Minnetonka, offering conveniences like free estimates. This approach empowers homeowners to explore project options without feeling rushed into making quick decisions. Operating from Monday to Saturday, the company provides flexible scheduling for appointments.

"Durability, functionality, and beauty are what we aim to deliver," says Daniel Kielb. "Our goal is for every client to be completely satisfied with their screens, confident that they can enjoy their living space without any nuisances. We want to ensure that every door and window is equipped with the best screen solutions possible."

Daniel Kielb maintains an active online presence, making it easy for clients to find updates and engage with services through Daniel Kielb's Facebook page and Daniel Kielb's LinkedIn profile. These platforms link directly to his website, simplifying communication and access to information.

Customizing screens is another service Daniel Kielb offers, ensuring each screen fits just right and serves its purpose effectively. Whether it's for a large balcony or a small kitchen window, his custom services are designed to deliver the ideal solution for any setting.

His commitment to customer satisfaction and quality service shines through in every part of the repair and replacement process. Daniel Kielb makes sure each screen meets his high standards before it's installed, setting his services apart in a market filled with other options.

Daniel Kielb shares, "We are thrilled to expand our services and offer top-tier screen repair to more residents in the Minneapolis area. With our advanced custom options and dedication to quality, we aim to make every home pest-free and full of fresh air."

Residents looking for all-encompassing screen solutions and maintenance advice can visit Daniel Kielb's website. Stay updated by connecting through socially active platforms like Daniel Kielb's Facebook and Daniel Kielb's LinkedIn. The company continues to offer personalized, quality solutions to ensure comfort and satisfaction for all homeowners in Minnesota.
