January 19, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Now Athletics, LLC, a yoga mat producer in Providence, RI, is proud to announce that they are supporting Janice Filter, a New Hampshire based yoga teacher. They have donated dozens of yoga mats, yoga blocks and other yoga supplies to her. Janice Filter was chosen because she offers free yoga classes to senior citizens, for which she says she is using the products. Full details about the yoga products can be found on www.nowathletics.net.

Spokesperson for Now Athletics Per Davidson says: "We are committed to advancing the popularity of yoga as a discipline, working closely together with a number of organizations who are trying to introduce it as a discipline in schools' physical education curricula. In addition, we want to focus not just on the young, but also on the elderly. When we heard about Janice Filter and her free yoga classes for seniors, we just knew we had to support her."

The yoga products offered by Now Athletics are also promoted by Starlight Yoga as can be seen at www.starlightyoga.com/product/. Starlight Yoga provides advice, information and guidance on yoga and promotes products that they believe to be particularly superior to others. Now Athletics' mats are environmentally friendly and completely safe for all users, durable and very easy to keep clean. These are all vital elements for the elderly, who are often frail and have compromised immune systems.

"I can't thank Now Athletics enough for their kind donations," says Janice Filter. "I love working with seniors and have seen amazing improvements in them in terms of both their physical and mental health. However, I can only do this if I have the proper tools to keep them safe and comfortable and Now Athletics really came to the rescue with this. I'll be able to offer my classes for years to come now. Thank you so much."

Now Athletics is looking forward to regular updates from Janice Filter. They will also continue in their tireless campaign of making sure people of all ages can and should take part in yoga, due to its fantastic benefits. Research has shown that people who take part in yoga are healthier in mind, body and soul.
