ELIS Set to Showcase Tailored Innovation at SupplySide West Expo

October 30, 2024

KAUFMAN, TX - October 30, 2024 -
ELIS Manufacturing & Packaging Solutions is gearing up for a big showing at the SupplySide West Expo this year. The event takes place on October 30th and 31st at the Mandalay Bay Expo Hall in Las Vegas, Nevada, and ELIS can be found at booth #7556.

The SupplySide West Expo is where industry experts and professionals gather to talk about the latest happenings in dietary supplements, food and beverages, pet health, and personal care. Over 20,000 participants and more than 1,500 companies, including various ingredient suppliers and contract manufacturers, are expected to attend. For ELIS, this is a great chance to present their skills in tailored blending and comprehensive contract manufacturing for nutraceuticals and other consumables.

ELIS Manufacturing & Packaging Solutions offers a wide range of services such as contract manufacturing, filling and packaging, and other added-value services. They work with different industries, including nutraceuticals, beauty and cosmetics, food and beverage, and pet food. Their manufacturing services cover everything from blending to encapsulation, bottle filling, sachets, and stick packs, all customized to fit specific brand requirements. More information can be found on their recently launched website at elismanufacturing.com.

Keith Vinson from ELIS expressed the significance of their participation, saying, "Being part of SupplySide West is an incredible opportunity for us. It allows us to connect with key players in our industry and showcase what we do best ? providing tailored solutions to meet the unique needs of our clients. We are excited to share our innovations and expertise with a wider audience at this prestigious event."

At the expo, visitors can see ELIS's effective filling and custom packaging options that boost brand visibility while maintaining product quality. They handle packaging for powders, liquids, creams, gels, tablets, and capsules. ELIS's focus on quality is evident as they are both GMP certified and FDA approved, ensuring top-notch manufacturing practices.

Apart from manufacturing, ELIS provides additional services like printing, kitting, fulfillment, and screen printing on bottles. These offerings help ensure products are packaged properly and delivered on schedule, aiming for complete customer satisfaction. By honing in on these areas, ELIS aims to improve the appearance and marketing potential of their clients' products.

The SupplySide West Expo also includes educational sections with interactive stages and presentations emphasizing the latest in ingredient innovations and scientific research. This educational aspect gives attendees valuable insights and aligns with ELIS's commitment to staying updated on the latest industry trends.

In a bid to boost their brand identity, ELIS Manufacturing & Packaging Solutions is launching a new website at elismanufacturing.com. This move highlights their intention to improve their online presence and provide better information and services to their clients.

Keith Vinson also noted, "Our new website launch is designed to offer a user-friendly experience for our clients. It reflects our dedication to innovation, customer satisfaction, and industry leadership. We are thrilled to introduce this new platform that will better serve our valued customers."

The SupplySide West Expo is more than just a trade show; it is a meeting of minds and ideas, providing a platform for business opportunities. For ELIS, attending this event means not only showcasing their capabilities but also building relationships with future clients and partners. These exchanges can lead to new collaborations and innovations beneficial to the various industries ELIS caters to.

Being part of the SupplySide West Expo strengthens ELIS Manufacturing & Packaging Solutions'

standing as a leader in the manufacturing and packaging sector. The event offers them a dynamic venue to connect with other industry players, engage in discussions about future trends, and develop important partnerships. As they step into this major industry gathering, ELIS is ready to tackle the evolving needs of their clients and drive their success.
