

BounceMoore Expands Party Equipment Rental Service with Exciting Inflatable Offerings

October 31, 2024

October 31, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

BounceMoore, a well-known party equipment rental service in Virginia, is expanding its selection by introducing inflatable obstacle courses. These new items respond to the rising demand for fun and varied entertainment at kids' parties and community gatherings. Alongside their new offerings, BounceMoore already provides a wide range of options, including bouncy castles, water slides, and bouncer/slide combos, making sure there's something for every type of event. Their commitment to quality service has made them a leading provider in areas such as Poquoson, Newport News, Yorktown, Williamsburg, and Tabb, with more details about their inflatables accessible on their website.

Now that inflatable obstacle courses are part of the lineup, families and event planners in and around Poquoson have even more options for planning entertaining events. This expansion shows BounceMoore's dedication to offering a fun and easy rental experience while keeping strict safety and cleanliness rules. Every inflatable is carefully checked and cleaned to offer a safe and trouble-free setting for children.

"Our move into inflatable obstacle courses is thrilling for our team and our customers," said Garland Moore, the founder of BounceMoore. "We know that families look for fun, safety, and ease, and our new obstacle courses provide all of that. Our goal is to create unforgettable experiences at every event, and these new options help us accomplish that."

Rental deliveries happen in the morning, making it easier for busy event planners. The inflatables are dropped off between 6 and 9 am and picked up between 7 and 9 pm. This schedule allows for a whole day of enjoyment without worrying about setup and takedown interfering with party times.

BounceMoore has gained a reputation as a reliable partner in event planning, serving various areas of Virginia, such as Poquoson, Newport News, Yorktown, Williamsburg, and Tabb. Customers can choose from a wide variety of inflatables with the possibility of customization to match specific themes or event requirements. The company's online reservation system is also a convenience, allowing customers to plan and book rentals easily from their homes. More details, including customer testimonials and rental options, can be found on their Google Business page.

"When families and event coordinators choose our services, they know we focus on safety alongside offering a vast selection of entertainment choices," Moore added. "The introduction of inflatable obstacle courses enhances our current lineup, making sure every party or event is a success. We take pride in continuing to support our communities with these improved services."

Adding inflatable obstacle courses to BounceMoore's catalog fits perfectly with the company's mission to provide outstanding party entertainment options. By including these lively and engaging additions, BounceMoore meets the growing demand for active play activities that parents and event planners are looking for.

As the holiday season and warmer months draw near, BounceMoore is ready to handle the expected increase in demand for party equipment rental services. The company's dedication to quality, safety, and customer satisfaction sets it apart in the industry, making BounceMoore a trusted name in Virginia's party rental market.

Those interested in BounceMoore's wide range of party equipment rental services can visit their website. There, they can find more details about the inflatables available and how to book them for upcoming events. With a broad choice of bouncy castles, slides, and obstacle courses, BounceMoore remains a favorite for hosting memorable events without the hassle.

For further information on bounce houses and other offerings of the party equipment rental service, including locations served and the newly added inflatables, potential clients can explore the map and location details found on BounceMoore's map service.

With these services and new offerings, BounceMoore continues its tradition of delivering fun, aiming to make each party special and unforgettable.

###

For more information about BounceMoore, contact the company here: BounceMooreGarland Moore (757) 716-1937 bouncemoore757@gmail.com 54 Shoreline Dr, Poquoson, VA 23662

BounceMoore

BounceMoore, in Poquoson, VA, offers party equipment rentals with inflatables like bounce houses, water slides, and obstacle courses. Serving the community since 2021, they ensure fun and safe children's events.

Website: <https://www.bouncemoore.com/>

Email: bouncemoore757@gmail.com

Phone: (757) 716-1937

