Milestone Church?s Candlelight Celebration in Haslet is a treasured part of the holiday season, transforming each service with the glow of candlelight, heartfelt Christmas carols, and a message of hope that reflects the significance of Christmas. With various service times available, families and individuals can easily find an opportunity to participate in this special event, balancing the joy of celebration with the busyness of the season.

Designed to create lasting memories, each Candlelight service is tailored to uplift attendees of all ages. Parents attending with children can take advantage of Milestone Kids, a program designed for children from birth to fifth grade. Milestone Kids allows children to enjoy a Christmas celebration tailored just for them, giving parents peace of mind and the chance to fully immerse themselves in the service.

For those who cannot attend in person, Milestone Church will be live-streaming the Candlelight services at milestonechurch.com/live, allowing the spirit of Christmas to reach beyond the physical church walls. This online experience ensures that everyone, regardless of location, can partake in the worship, carols, and message of the season, bringing families and friends together even from afar.

Milestone Church invites everyone in the community, whether familiar faces or first-time visitors, to experience the warmth and unity that these Candlelight services offer. Planning a visit is simple through the church's website, which provides comprehensive information about service times, directions, parking, and the Milestone Kids program. Milestone encourages families to make this event a holiday tradition, fostering connections with loved ones and neighbors in a welcoming environment filled with faith and fellowship.

More than a traditional service, Milestone Church?s Christmas Candlelight Celebration is a deeply moving experience of shared reflection and spiritual renewal. As carols resonate throughout the Worship Center and the candles are lit, attendees are invited to pause and reflect on the beauty, peace, and hope that Christmas symbolizes. This event is ideal for families, couples, and individuals alike, offering a serene and joyful experience amid the holiday season?s festivities.

Staying true to its mission of inclusivity, Milestone Church does not require any registration to attend the Candlelight services, ensuring that the event is freely accessible to all who wish to participate. This welcoming approach reflects Milestone?s philosophy of open doors and open hearts, especially during this season of giving and unity.
