Alicia Lyttle Launches 2016 Version of Fiverr Cash Machine Course on Udemy

January 15, 2016

January 15, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Top internet marketer Alicia Lyttle runs a successful online marketing course about making money online via Fiverr on Udemy, and she has announced that she has now launched an updated version in keeping with all the changes that have been made to the Fiverr platform for 2016.

Launched in the first week of January, the 2016 version of the online course is designed to help students benefit from Fiverr's latest updates which allow sellers to grow their online businesses even faster than before. It includes 2.5 hours of video with 32 lectures in English and is suitable for students at all skill levels who are interested in internet marketing and freelancing.

Over 450 students are currently enrolled in the Fiverr Cash Machine course, which is titled 'How to use Fiverr to make money online?' and instructs people on how to use the site to their advantage. With people making millions of dollars on Fiverr annually, it has become one of the most popular websites for freelancers and people seeking to hire professionals from anywhere in the world.

The course is designed to help newcomers and seasoned members of the site increase their earning potential by learning how to leverage its main tools and features. It also outlines some of the top earning gig categories on Fiverr, gives examples of top earners, and offers students information about software, tools and websites which can be used to enhance their skills and earning potential.

Students who are successful in completing the course will receive a certificate, along with lifetime access to training as needed, in keeping with changes that Fiverr may undergo from time to time. Additionally, it can be accessed on desktop computers, Android and iOS devices and it is offered with a full money-back guarantee.

With online learning growing in popularity in recent times, the Fiverr Cash Machine course is seen as a low-cost opportunity for people who want to learn new skills while enhancing their earning potential online. Interested individuals can enroll by visiting the course page on Udemy.
