

Score Big this Black Friday: Go Industries' Dually Mud Flaps Sale

November 22, 2024

Richardson, TX - November 22, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Go Industries is rolling out a Black Friday sale that will showcase their famous dually mud flaps, giving truck owners a chance to get top-notch protection for less. From November 25th to December 1st, 2024, customers can snag a 10% discount not only on mud flaps but also on grille guards, bumper replacements, and more. To take advantage of the offer, shoppers need to use the promo code "turkey24" during checkout. For more information on their offerings, visit the Go Industries website.

For years, Go Industries has been a go-to source for truck accessories and custom manufacturing. They understand that dually mud flaps are crucial for truck owners, especially those with GMC, Chevrolet, or Ford dually trucks. These mud flaps help to stop debris from causing damage to vehicles and others on the road. This is important for keeping trucks looking good and running well, especially in tough road conditions.

"Our mission is to provide truck owners with products that not only enhance the appearance of their vehicles but also contribute significantly to their longevity and safety," said a spokesperson for Go Industries. "This Black Friday sale is an extension of our commitment to offer value-added solutions to our customers, enabling them to protect their investments without breaking the bank."

The company doesn't just stop at dually mud flaps. They offer a full lineup of truck accessories like grille guards for front-end protection, bumper replacements, and more. Each product is crafted with precision, ready to meet the tough standards of truck lovers, fleet managers, and outdoor fans.

On top of all their accessories, Go Industries also offers specialized equipment for law enforcement vehicles and custom manufacturing services. Their website makes it easy for customers to browse and find what they're looking for.

The savings on dually mud flaps during the Black Friday sale are an attractive option for anyone serious about keeping their truck in top shape. Made from non-recycled rubber, these flaps are strong and built to last. You can find them in styles like the Classic Dually Set, Stainless Steel Dually Set, and Diamond Tread Dually Set, ensuring that there's something for every make and model.

"Truck owners looking to protect their vehicles from mud, rocks, and other debris should consider investing in dually mud flaps," noted another spokesperson from Go Industries. "We are excited to provide this opportunity for truck enthusiasts to enhance their vehicles at a reduced cost during our Black Friday sale."

By visiting the Go Industries website, customers can see the full range of dually mud flaps and check out the Black Friday prices. It's also an opportunity to explore other products such as law enforcement accessories and custom offerings.

This Black Friday sale is a major chance for truck owners to buy gear that will keep their vehicles safe and sound through all seasons. By offering discounts on key items like dually mud flaps, Go Industries builds on its stellar reputation as a reliable provider of truck and fleet necessities. The company is dedicated to quality and value, making sure their products meet or beat customer expectations.

For those wanting to grab the 10% off on dually mud flaps and other products, details are available on the Go Industries website. Visitors can also sign up for newsletters or follow on social media for the latest updates on products and sales. The company is proud to offer great prices, quality items, and outstanding service, keeping their spot at the forefront of the truck accessory world.
