January 28, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Bloomington, MN based company JGM Properties, has announced the availability of warehouse space for rent in the Minneapolis area. Eli Russell, spokesperson for the company says, "We have worked to streamline our systems, which enables us to provide our tenants with a more timely and accurate service." Russell says that the management company currently has a wide range of rental options including warehouse spaces that are suitable for a wide range of commercial industrial and business requirements. In addition to warehouse space, they offer medical, retail, office, and tech spaces for rent.

JGM Properties offers a number of rental options for businesses in and around the Minneapolis area. A listing of available properties can be seen at <http://jgmproperties.com/Minneapolis%2C+Minnesota/Warehouse+space+for+rent.php3>.

Founded in 1980, the company is a small family owned and operated commercial management company. Each building managed by JGM Properties has its own partnership, which allows the company to maintain and budget each one. They offer a number of perks to tenants, and Russell states that they currently have a number of warehouse spaces available.

"Whatever a tenant is looking for, we likely have it available," Eli Russell states. The site offers a search feature that allows potential tenants to look at more than 100 available spaces by city and building; to ensure that you find the appropriate space for your unique business needs. Those who are interested in searching for available properties can do so at <http://jgmproperties.com/Minneapolis%2C+Minnesota/Warehouse+space+rental.php3>.

The company states that they have warehouse space available for a number of industries and unique business needs; and that they work with potential tenants to help them to relocate and secure the perfect property according to their specific business requirements.

JGM Properties has been professionally managing commercial spaces for more than 30 years and ensures that tenants find and rent the space that best serves their business needs. Those interested can use the unique search feature or contact the company directly to work with Eli Russell.
