February 18, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

JGM Properties, a business in Bloomington, MN, has announced the availability of Golden Valley warehouse space after they found out that there has been a rise in demand for that particular type of property. The company would like to point out that while there is very limited availability of such a space, the property management company does have space in Plymouth, MN, which is just a few blocks away. Details are available at <http://www.jgmproperties.com/Golden+Valley,+Minnesota/Warehouse+space+for+rent.php3>.

Eli Russell from JGM Properties says: "The Golden Valley has seen a huge economic boom, which is great news for the local area, of course. However, it simply isn't possible to keep up with demand anymore. Luckily, we have equally good spaces available around the corner in Plymouth. Making use of these means that the economic boom can expand to neighboring communities as well."

As can be seen on <http://jgmproperties.com/Golden+Valley%2C+Minnesota/Warehouse+space+for+lease.php3>, JGM Properties has numerous options available for those looking for any kind of commercial space. They operate across 12 different cities and manage 24 different buildings, which gives them in excess of 100 vacant spaces, and their portfolio is growing. The company has long been at the forefront of boosting local economies across Minnesota communities.

"We provide a lot of help and assistance to newly started businesses in the Minnesota area," adds Eli Russell. "And not just that, we also promote office spaces in various parts of the state, so that the economy in different communities can improve. We often find that focusing on up and coming communities is a win-win situation. Smaller businesses can often get cheaper rates, and emerging economies can start to grow."

People are encouraged to visit the JGM Properties website on <http://www.jgmproperties.com/property/medicine-lake-property/> to find out more about the various warehouse space properties they have available near Golden Valley, including in other areas such as Medicine Lake. Their website includes an easy contact form for those looking for more information on certain properties. The services offered by the company have been very positively received by their many clients.

"Nothing but good things to say about this property company," says Ryan M. "Eli is a good man and will take care of you. Made renting the office a breeze. Would definitely recommend Eli and JGM to anyone looking to rent an office."
