Morning Mugs Brews Up Baltimore Ravens Spirit with New Iced Mocha Delight

December 09, 2024

December 09, 2024 -
Morning Mugs Coffee is excited to announce a unique drink in honor of the Baltimore Ravens. Known for adding a playful twist to the coffee scene, the shop is launching a limited-time specialty beverage: the iced mocha with blackberry cold foam. This drink captures the excitement surrounding the city's cherished team, allowing fans to show their support with a refreshing, purple-themed treat. Customers can learn more about this exciting new beverage on our website, where they also have the option to order ahead and skip the line.

Tyler DellaRatta, a representative from Morning Mugs Coffee, shared his enthusiasm: "Morning Mugs has always been about enjoying life's simple pleasures, and what better way to do that than to combine our love for coffee with our passion for local sports? We hope our new specialty coffee drinks for Baltimore sports teams bring as much joy to our customers as they do to us."

By introducing this new offering, Morning Mugs Coffee is strengthening its connection with the community and celebrating local culture. Located in Federal Hill and soon expanding to Locust Point, the company has become known for its great service and fun customer interactions, like the popular guessing game of predicting the mug color. The new drink embodies their spirit of delighting customers, bringing people together through a shared love of team spirit.

Besides the lively atmosphere in their stores, Morning Mugs Coffee caters to busy coffee lovers by providing easy online ordering and a delivery service. Customers can visit our website to easily place online orders for quick pickup or have their favorite drinks delivered directly to their home or workplace. This means fans can enjoy their iced mocha with blackberry cold foam from home or work, adding a bit of cheer to their day.

DellaRatta continues, "The Ravens hold a special place in the hearts of many of our customers, and being able to create a drink that celebrates that connection is really exciting for us. We look forward to seeing our customers enjoy this new offering and sharing their moments with us."

The iced mocha with blackberry cold foam highlights Morning Mugs Coffee's commitment to innovation in specialty coffee drinks for Baltimore sports teams. Whether it's during game day or as a midweek indulgence, this vibrant drink is set to become a fan favorite.
