

Red LaMore Body Company Announces New Website for 2016

January 19, 2016

January 19, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The staff at Red LaMore Body Company are pleased to announce that they are launching a brand new website for the new year. In 2016, Red LaMore Body Company will have a fresh website.

The family-owned company has been serving the St. Louis area with high quality collision repair services since 1938. Red LaMore Body Company also emphasizes environmental safety by using water based paints.

The new website offers a user-friendly, streamlined interface with images of the staff and facility, as well as information about the company and services available. Details can be found at <http://redlamoreautobody.com/>.
