

Unlock Competitive Mortgage Rates with John Cornish's New Resource Hub in Quad Cities, IA

January 13, 2025

DAVENPORT, IA - January 13, 2025 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

John Cornish, who has spent 21 years as a mortgage lender, has launched a new website to broaden his reach and connect with more clients. This site, QCHomeLoan.com, went live on September 1, 2021, and is aimed at helping first-time buyers and veterans in Iowa by providing detailed information on FHA loans, VA home loans, and other mortgage choices. The site is packed with resources, including guides, FAQs, and blog posts, to help make the mortgage process easier to understand.

This online move is a significant milestone for Cornish as he looks to assist homebuyers and those seeking to refinance. The website is set up as a knowledge hub with practical resources to help clients make informed choices on mortgage financing. It reflects Cornish's dedication to simplifying the path from application to closing, with support from his team members Ryan Roman, Tayler Fick, and Lindsay Frederick.

"I'm thrilled to offer this all-encompassing resource that can better help our prospective clients comprehend their mortgage choices," said John Cornish. "We aim to provide support and clarity to make buying a home or refinancing straightforward and less intimidating."

With this new digital tool, Cornish also hopes to boost his presence in the local mortgage market. By offering educational content, he intends to attract first-time buyers and veterans alike, solidifying his reputation as a leading lender in the Quad Cities. This is part of a strategy that combines the ease of digital tools with the personalized service Cornish is known for.

For a more interactive experience, Cornish is also active on various social media platforms. He uses his Facebook page and YouTube channel to share updates and advice about mortgage solutions, allowing him to connect more effectively with potential clients.

Cornish is also committed to his community. Together with his wife, Meghan, he founded the Key Cares Foundation, raising over $160,000 for local non-profits. This initiative showcases Cornish's dedication to giving back to the community where he has lived for more than 20 years.

He is well-regarded by former clients, who frequently praise his dedication to customer satisfaction. His services include providing strategic advice for making competitive mortgage offers and a streamlined pre-approval process. He caters to a wide variety of clients, from first-time buyers to those looking to refinance for better rates.

"I'm passionate about making mortgage financing easy to understand and accessible," Cornish continued. "Whether through our website, social media, or community efforts, we're here to guide you every step of the way."
