Travel blogger Lauren has published a new post highlighting her experiences with the South Coast Jamaica Tour offered by Your Jamaican Tour Guide. This was a private sightseeing tour and her experiences have been overwhelmingly positive and Your Jamaican Tour Guide has been very grateful for her review. Her blog post can be found at <http://justinpluslauren.com/ys-falls-and-black-river-safari-jamaica-visitor/>.

Lauren, who is one half of the "Justin Plus Lauren" travel couple who operate the blog, says: "We thoroughly enjoyed our tour to YS Falls and Black River Safari. To take this tour, you can book the Jamaican South Coast Sightseeing Tour with Viator, which includes pick-up and drop-off from your hotel, as well as transportation to the sites. Alrick, our tour operator, was very informative and fun to be around. We had a wonderful experience and wouldn't hesitate to recommend the tour to anyone. It was one of the most memorable days of my vacation."

In the post, Lauren goes through each element of the tour and gives people an overview of what to expect. She has also added a number of photographs to give people an even better feel for the entire experience. The tour is known locally as one of the best, showing Jamaica for what it really is: a wonderful island filled with beautiful nature, people, food and music. People are encouraged to visit the tour guide's page at <http://tourguides.viator.com/sightseeing-tours-jamaica-negril-3722.aspx> for further information about the trip.

Your Jamaican Tour Guide offers a number of other tours, as well as VIP packages for their guests. The services have been proven to be incredibly popular, and now that they have been recommended by such a famous blogger, they are noticing a further increase in uptake for their trips. Full details about all their tours and how to book are available through <http://yourjamaicantourguide.com/>.

"Our goal is to create fully personalized tours that will let you see Jamaica the way you want to see it," says Alrick Allen. "No big tour buses, no waiting for others, these tours are about about you and your family. I want to ensure you have the most unique experience in Jamaica and will continue to visit us and tell your friends to visit as well."
