December 17, 2024 -
Bentonville, AR ? Parenti-Morris Eyecare (PME) is proud to announce the addition of Jennifer Dillard, O.D., F.A.A.O., to their growing team of dedicated eye care professionals. With a passion for comprehensive eye care and a focus on providing personalized solutions, Dr. Dillard enhances PME?s ability to serve the diverse needs of their community.

?I?ve always believed that eye care is about more than just vision?it?s about empowering patients to live their best lives,? said Dr. Dillard. ?Whether it?s helping a child manage their changing vision, providing relief to someone suffering from dry eye, or fitting specialty lenses for those with unique needs, I approach every case as an opportunity to make a real difference. Joining Parenti-Morris gives me the chance to continue this mission alongside a team that shares my patient-first philosophy.?
Dr. Dillard?s journey to Parenti-Morris includes years of experience providing care for patients of all ages. A graduate of Northeastern State University Oklahoma College of Optometry, she has honed her skills in various areas of optometric care, including routine exams, pediatric services, and ocular disease. Her commitment to staying at the forefront of advances in eye care ensures that her patients receive thoughtful and effective solutions tailored to their individual needs.

At Parenti-Morris, Dr. Dillard will focus on key areas such as dry eye management and myopia control for children. Her approach combines a deep understanding of patient care with a dedication to using the latest in optometric technology, ensuring a well-rounded and compassionate experience for every patient.

Dr. Dillard?s career highlights include her dedication to helping patients achieve better vision and overall eye health through individualized care. Her ability to address a wide range of needs, from routine exams to complex visual issues, has made her a trusted provider in the communities she has served. She takes pride in her role as an advocate for patient education, ensuring that those under her care fully understand their eye health and treatment options.

?Parenti-Morris Eyecare stands out as a practice that truly puts patients first,? said Dr. Dillard. ?Their dedication to advanced care, innovative solutions, and a welcoming environment aligns perfectly with how I approach optometry.

Parenti-Morris Eyecare offers a full spectrum of services, including routine eye exams, children?s exams, dry eye management, myopia control, and cosmetic eye services.
