

Visacompare Discusses Music Festival Travel Visas

January 19, 2016

January 19, 2016 -
London, UK, JAN 16, 2016 ? Summer, where the days are longer and the desire to be outside is strong. In the winter months, people might not be so inclined to spend the evenings out. Music festival organisers know this and plan the best music festivals worldwide in the summer months. In keeping with their mission to educate travellers on the VISA process, VisaCompare (www.visacompare.com) has just published a new blog post entitled 'Best summer music festivals around the world.'

The article discusses 'a collection of the best summer music festivals from around the world that one can look forward to attending next summer.?

According to the article, the Sonar, Barcelona festival 'features some of the best musical talents as well as the best up and coming musical stars. Sonar is not just about an incredible audio experience, it is also about the visual treats that are displayed to indulge the senses. The festival was launched in 1994 and it has grown to become one of the best festivals to attend in Barcelona.'

According to the article, ?Roskilde, Denmark is one of the best mainstream music festivals to attend in the Danish summer months. More than a hundred artists perform every year and the festival attracts some big names'. It further describes the 'Splendour in the Grass Festival that takes place in New South Wales,

Australia which was started in 2001 and has been held every year since accommodating 30,000 people.'

The article further discusses the Lollapalooza festival held in Chicago, the Montreux Jazz Festival in Switzerland, and the Pohoda festival in Slovakia.
