January 19, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Marbella SP: Rachel Rose Weddings, a leading wedding planner company in Marbella, is pleased to announce that a new wedding venue will be available to couples beginning in 2017. Those who are planning a 2017 wedding can reserve the accommodations at Cortijo Rosa Blanca for an unforgettable venue on the Costa Del Sol, Spain. The new venue was designed purposely as a wedding venue, located in the heart of Andalucia, but only twenty minutes from Marbella's beaches.

This spacious, luxury villa can accommodate up to twenty guests is set in six acres of landscaped gardens, woodlands and orchards. The grounds can easily cater for weddings up to 250 guests and is set in a valley with a backdrop of mountains, woodland and even a river.

Guests can enjoy a picturesque waterfall, a pool area with swimming opportunities plus nearby is a nature reserve with walking trails and wildlife. Natural plantings of scented Mediterranean plants provide floral decorations for the wedding.

Every aspect of the wedding day has been planned from the welcome drink for guests to a dance floor and evening bar area to dance the night away. The entire Cortijo was decorated by Rachel Rose in a classic romantic style including comfortable beds and linens in sizes for couples or families.

Casa Amor is a luxurious honeymoon cottage with adequate space for preparation by the bride and bridesmaids before the ceremony. Additional features to be added in 2017 include conversion of the stable blocks to accommodate a gym, guest toilets, a catering kitchen and a Moroccan Shisha Lounge.

The transportation arrangements are convenient, with the Cortijo only 25 minutes from the Malaga Airport. Other nearby accommodations include B&Bs, hotels, self-catering villas and the best beaches on the Cost. Party nightlife is available in Marbella and La Cala, each about a twenty-minute drive.
