

Nutrishop Roswell Announces Accomplishments of Its Owner

December 23, 2024

December 23, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Roswell, GA ? Nutrishop Roswell highlights the achievements and expertise of its owner, Laurie Coello, whose background in fitness and nutrition supports the community in pursuing health goals. Coello's journey began at age 49 when a foot injury led her to strength training. This experience led her to competitive bodybuilding, where she participated in her first event at age 50. Most recently, at 60, she competed in the 10th Annual Lee Haney Games in November 2024, achieving first place in the Master's 60+ category and fourth place in the Master's 50+ category.

Coello's credentials include certifications such as NASM Certified Personal Trainer, NASM Certified Sports Nutrition Coach, and NASM Women's Fitness Specialist. She is pursuing additional education on menopause to remain current with health and wellness trends. Her background informs her work at Nutrishop Roswell, where customers receive guidance tailored to their individual needs. Her understanding of weight loss, muscle building, and nutrition challenges enables her to connect with clients and provide practical advice.

Nutrishop Roswell was voted Atlanta's Best Nutrition Store for 2024 by Atlanta's Best. This recognition reflects the store's dedication to offering quality products and services. Coello emphasizes the importance of informed decision-making regarding supplements, encouraging customers to research and seek expert advice.

Nutrishop Roswell is committed to customer satisfaction and supporting clients in surpassing their health and fitness objectives. For more information, visit the website, the store or contact Nutrishop Roswell to learn how its offerings can assist with fitness and wellness goals.
