

Keathley Landscaping Expands in Dallas with Custom Stonework Services to Transform Outdoor Spaces

January 02, 2025

GARLAND, TX - January 02, 2025 -
Keathley Landscaping, a full-service landscaping company based in Dallas, Texas, has announced a big expansion of its services in the Dallas area. Already known for its wide range of landscaping offerings, the company is now enhancing its focus on outdoor spaces with new custom stonework options. This move means they can offer even more personalized solutions that meet both the visual and practical needs of homeowners. Visit keathleylandscaping.com to explore their broad range of services and projects.

A key addition to their lineup is an emphasis on retaining walls Wylie TX. These walls are not just about holding soil in place; they bring a beautiful touch to outdoor areas. "We want to offer our clients more than just basic landscaping," said Logan Keathley, CEO of Keathley Landscaping. "Our custom stonework, including retaining walls, is about elevating and transforming their outdoor spaces into something extraordinary."

Alongside retaining walls, they are also introducing flowerbed borders Wylie. These carefully crafted borders are designed to enhance the look of flowerbeds while providing definition and protection. They highlight the skill and detail Keathley Landscaping brings to every project. The company knows the importance of having well-defined flower beds in creating a welcoming garden space. These flowerbed borders might seem like a small touch, but they play a big role in making a garden inviting.

Another exciting addition is the introduction of custom fire pits Wylie TX. These fire pits are a special mix of design and function, giving homeowners a warm and appealing spot for gatherings. They serve as versatile centers for social events or quiet nights under the stars. With the company's skill in stonework, every fire pit is made to last and seamlessly connects with the rest of the landscape.

"We are dedicated to making outdoor spaces functional and beautiful," Keathley added. "Adding our custom fire pits and other stonework services in Wylie is an exciting step forward in that mission."

These new service offerings are a big boost to their ability to customize landscapes for their clients. Adding custom stonework strengthens their role as a full-service landscaping provider that can create long-lasting, attractive structures. Their ability to enhance outdoor spaces is continually proven by the positive responses from clients who appreciate their professional approach and dependable service.

Aside from these new features, Keathley Landscaping stays committed to delivering their established services, like landscape design, lawn care, and maintenance throughout Dallas and its surrounding areas. Their focus on customer satisfaction and quality craftsmanship has been the foundation of their business since it began in 2002.

By broadening their range of services, Keathley Landscaping is showing a commitment to keeping up with their clients' needs. Whether a project requires innovative stonework or classic landscaping solutions, their team provides a full suite of services to fulfill every outdoor vision. Their client-centered approach assures that each project receives the same high level of attention and expertise.

For those interested in transforming their outdoor spaces, Keathley Landscaping's expertise in landscape design & construction, patios, fences, pergolas, decks, and more can be a perfect match. As they continue to expand in the Dallas region, their broader service offerings are sure to have a significant impact locally and beyond. With a focus on innovation, quality, and customer satisfaction, their skill in custom stonework promises to deliver both functional and visually appealing results.
