

Enterprise Spam Filtering Firm DuoCircle Announces Service Upgrades

March 04, 2016

March 04, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Enterprise spam filtering company DuoCircle has announced an upgrade to their provisioning system and website. The updated website www.duocircle.com will allow businesses to provision cloud based spam filtering and hosted email accounts for businesses of any size.

Brad Slavin CEO of DuoCircle says: "We are very excited about our new website and the upgraded client access portal. It is designed to help expand our spam filtering service by offering a full compliment of enterprise filtering features including quarantine, message tracking, along with a suite of hosted email and SSL certificates for our clients."

Along with the new portal upgrades DuoCircle will be releasing Google Apps for Enterprise subscriptions, Office 365 for business and a wide range of security and SSL certificate options.

Their existing spam filtering system has also be improved. Customer will be able to add DKIM support for outbound email reliability and DANE for message security. DuoCircle has also added a new spam filtering zone in Europe to improve privacy and responsiveness for their EU customers.

"Not only are we the most cost effective spam filtering option for small and medium businesses," adds Slavin, "but we the only provider in our category that offers 24/7 live technical support via phone, live chat and email. We pride ourselves on our extremely reliable network and outstanding customer service."

The company is looking forward to improving the experience for their customers and expanding their services to new markets.
