January 27, 2016 -

Caledon, Canada - Gold Star Selections have recently released an new product on the giant shopping portal Amazon. The product called Fun Chalk Liquid Chalk Markers is showing great appreciation from many online shoppers upon its release. To ensure the customers are satisfied with its offering, the company has established a few promotional discounts for a period of time.

As of January 2016, the chalk markers are available for a price below $16. This is a sale price for customers who can save $34 or 68% from the listed price. With savings over 50%, Fun Chalk is showing how much it appreciates its customers. Additionally customers can access free shipping from Amazon once their order is over $35. That means that anyone who orders three or more of the eight pack of window markers can receive free shipping of their product.

The company Gold Star Selections also offers discounts on its products once customers purchase the eight pack of window markers in bulk. For example, if the customer purchases two chalk markers packages then they can save up to 10% each on qualifying items offered by the Amazon vendor Gold Star Selections. The customer can access this discount once the enter the code SS3F6NAB at checkout.

Similarly if a customer purchases three of the eight pack of window markers then they can access 15% on qualifying items with the company Gold Star Selections. This is possible for those who enter the code VWZA5A5Z at checkout on Amazon. These types of discounts are available for those who purchase anywhere between two to six window markers. They are given between 10% to 30% discount off selected items from Gold Star Selections.

The pack of eight window markers are bright neon colors that also include white. The window markers are uniquely tipped with the possibility to be reversible. That means users can utilize the markers and produce markings in a broad tip or a fine tip. According to the company, the markers leave bright, clear, well defined markings.

According to Fun Chalk, the window markers are made with premium ink and manufactured to be long lasting. The markers can write on a variety of non-porous surfaces. The window markers are capable of writing on windows, plastics, chalk boards, whiteboards and blackboards. The markers can be used for many purposes including brainstorming sessions, school projects and promotional activities.
