January 30, 2025

January 30, 2025 -
Anaheim, California - Lighthouse Treatment Center, a leading drug and alcohol addiction treatment center in Orange County, California, has appointed Jeff Stromberg as Chief Financial Officer (CFO). This leadership addition comes as the Lighthouse Treatment Center continues its mission to deliver exceptional care and maintain its standing as a trusted and leading resource for individuals seeking recovery.

Stromberg brings a wealth of financial expertise and leadership experience that will further strengthen the center?s operations and growth strategies. He will oversee financial management while collaborating with senior leadership at the Lighthouse to ensure long-term sustainability and success.

Peter Davidson, President of Lighthouse Treatment Center, said that welcoming Jeff to the team is an exciting milestone for the group. ?Jeff?s proven expertise in financial management and his extensive leadership experience make him qualified to support our vision. I?m confident that Jeff?s strategic approach will help us continue to grow as a leader in the addiction treatment sector while maintaining the high level of care our clients have come to expect,? said Davidson.

As CFO, Stromberg will play a critical role in managing and optimizing the financial health of the company. His responsibilities will include developing and steering financial strategies, overseeing budgeting and financial reporting, and creating systems that support operational excellence. Stromberg will also work closely with the executive team to ensure resources are allocated efficiently, supporting Lighthouse Treatment Center's mission to provide life-changing services to its clients.

Stromberg expressed his enthusiasm for joining the Lighthouse Treatment Center, stating, ?I?m honored to step into this role at a facility that is making a real, measurable impact in people?s lives. The work done at Lighthouse is inspiring, and I?m excited to be part of a team so committed to excellence in addiction recovery. I look forward to contributing my skills and experience to help advance its mission and promote its legacy of care.?

With extensive experience in the financial sector, Stromberg has held leadership positions in healthcare, nonprofit, and corporate settings, where he oversaw high-stakes decisions, spearheaded cost-saving initiatives, and led teams to achieve sustainable growth. Holding a Bachelor of Science degree from Brigham Young University?s School of Accounting, his background also includes managing complex financial operations, developing cross-functional collaboration, and driving innovation to enhance organizational performance. Stromberg?s strategic planning abilities and commitment to operational efficiency have been widely recognized as key to his success.

Reflecting on how his previous roles will contribute to his work at Lighthouse Treatment Center, Stromberg said, ?My career has allowed me to work in dynamic environments where financial planning and organizational growth are important. I?m eager to bring this experience to the Lighthouse, ensuring we continue building a strong foundation to support the incredible work this team does every day. I look forward to collaborating with the talented individuals here and creating sustainable strategies that will help us achieve our mission and make a lasting impact for the community we serve.?

Lighthouse Treatment Center remains committed to employing the best talent to uphold its reputation as a leading facility for drug and alcohol addiction treatment in Orange County, CA. From dedicated staff to highly trained therapists and office professionals, every team member plays a vital role in delivering exceptional care. This commitment to excellence ensures that individuals seeking recovery receive effective support in a compassionate environment, cementing Lighthouse?s position as a trusted resource in Orange County.
