Earning the Castle Connolly Top Doctor distinction is no small feat, as the organization has exceptionally high standards for its evaluations, including peer nominations, an extensive screening process, and thorough

?Our staff is truly the heartbeat of this practice,? she said. ?Every person plays a vital role, from our knowledgeable front office concierges who greet patients with friendly faces, to our surgical staff who carry out each procedure with precision and attention to patient comfort. I credit each of them for helping maintain the standard of excellence that Castle Connolly recognizes year after year.?
