JJ Curran Crane, a trusted leader in crane rental services, proudly announces its 75th anniversary, marking seven and a half decades of service, innovation, and community partnership. Under the theme Lifting Together: 75 Years of Family and Community, this milestone commemorates the company?s rich heritage, its dedicated employees, and enduring relationships with customers and partners across the Midwest.

Founded in 1950 by John (JJ) Curran as Dearborn Excavating, the company?s humble beginnings with a single backhoe quickly evolved into a thriving business. Today, JJ Curran Crane remains a family-owned enterprise led by Jeff Curran, son of the founder. The company continues to modernize its fleet, offering cranes ranging from 8 to 450 tons, while maintaining its core values of trust, quality, and teamwork. Celebrating this remarkable milestone, JJ Curran Crane pays
