Today PrimeEffects reported that their electric motorcycle and scooter air horn, the Screaming Banshee, will come with a full one (1) year manufacturer warranty and money back guarantee. The Screaming Banshee is an electric warning horn that emits over 130 decibels of warbling two-tone sound when activated. PrimeEffects is a consumer products company with a mission of providing specialty products in the fields of health and safety.

"This is a fantastic warranty offer," says CEO and founder of PrimeEffects, Philip Jepsen. "We're guaranteeing your full satisfaction, and backing it with a one year manufacturer warranty. I'm confident you're going to love this horn, but now you can buy it and try it with no reservations whatsoever."

The Screaming Banshee comes with all the parts needed to install, along with a full installation PDF document and links to an installation video. The horn was devised and designed by motorcycle riders as a way to instantly grab the attention of all other drivers in the vicinity. It is louder than an average emergency siren, and emits an attention getting scream that can be heard in an enclosed vehicle cabin up to three blocks away. At the same time it sounds the horn, it also flashes the high beams, thus drawing the focus of the drivers who have just been alerted.

"This thing is a wake-up call," says Mr. Jepsen. "I'm here to tell you. You'll never believe just how loud this thing is. And once it's got your attention, it's flashing the high beams to let you know exactly where to look. Other drivers will think the police are coming."

The Screaming Banshee Motorcycle Air Horn by PrimeEffects is a warning system inspired by the vulnerability of motorcycle and scooter riders on the road. It is designed to provide a way to draw immediate notice, thus increasing safety. It is available on Amazon, and comes with a 1 year warranty.
