

Lost Coffee Announces Revamped Coffee Subscription Service, Offering More Variety and Flexibility

February 13, 2025

February 13, 2025 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Lost Coffee is excited to unveil its newly enhanced online coffee subscription service, making it easier than ever for customers to enjoy fresh, specialty coffee delivered straight to their door. The overhauled program simplifies the selection process, offering greater flexibility in choosing grinds, quantities, coffee varieties, and delivery frequency.

With a mission to provide premium, small-batch roasted coffee to customers nationwide, Lost Coffee's updated subscription model ensures a seamless experience. Customers can now select from four signature coffees, including:

Flat Black Espresso Blend ? Our tasty Flat Black Espresso Blend features seasonally picked washed coffee varieties from Central and South America. The blend of chocolatey notes and fruit-forward beans creates a balanced sweet taste.

Decaf Palo Rosa ? A sweet and flavorful decaf option, crafted for those who want all the taste without the caffeine.

Before Dawn Dark Roast ? A single-origin coffee taken through a longer development to provide a delicious dark roast coffee.

Roaster's Choice ? Seasonally rotating single-origin selections curated by our roastery team of coffee professionals.

“Lost Coffee has always been about bringing people together over great coffee, and our new subscription service reflects that commitment,” said Scott Gaerte, Owner of Lost Coffee. “We wanted to give our customers the power to personalize their coffee experience, making it as convenient and exciting as possible. With the ability to choose their coffee type, grind, and delivery frequency, we’ve crafted a program that fits seamlessly into their lifestyle.”

Exclusive Perks for Subscribers

Subscribers to Lost Coffee's program can effortlessly explore new responsibly sourced coffee flavors. With each delivery, customers get the opportunity to try a variety of coffee blends and single-origin selections, carefully chosen to highlight diverse regions and roasting techniques. The subscription allows coffee lovers to experience a rotating selection of specialty coffees without the hassle of searching for new options.

How It Works:

Choose A Coffee ? Select from Lost Coffee's signature blends or opt for the rotating Roaster's Choice for a surprise with every order.

Set A Schedule ? Pick a delivery frequency that fits your needs: weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly.

Brew and Enjoy ? Every bag of coffee is small-batch roasted in Highlands Ranch, CO, ensuring peak freshness and quality with every sip.

Beyond convenience, Lost Coffee's subscription program is deeply rooted in ethical sourcing. The company maintains strong partnerships with trusted producers and importers, ensuring that each bag supports fair wages, sustainability, and transparency in coffee-growing regions.

“At Lost Coffee, we’re more than just a coffee company—we’re a movement,” added Gaerte. “Our subscription service brings customers closer to the source, honoring the farmers and communities that make each cup possible.”

Sustainability and Ethical Sourcing

Lost Coffee is committed to sustainability and ethical sourcing practices, ensuring that every coffee bean purchased supports responsible farming and fair trade. By working closely with producers, Lost Coffee ensures transparency in sourcing while promoting environmental stewardship. The company prioritizes relationships with farmers who uphold high-quality standards and sustainable growing methods, ensuring that every cup contributes to a positive global impact.
