

Northwest Plumbing Celebrates Century of Service with Drain Cleaning and Clogged Sinks Solutions

March 14, 2025

DAVENPORT, Iowa - March 14, 2025 -
Northwest Plumbing, Heating & AC, a well-known provider of residential plumbing, heating, and cooling services, is focused on helping homes stay warm this winter by offering furnace repair and installation. Since it began in 1923 in the Quad Cities, Northwest Plumbing, Heating & AC has been known for its dependable service and expertise in home comfort. As the cold months set in, the company is working hard to ensure residents have homes that are warm and energy-efficient.

During winter, furnace repair and installation become very important. Northwest Plumbing Heating & AC understands what the season demands and prioritizes the heating systems that need expert care. A broken furnace isn't just a problem; it can seriously impact the comfort and safety of a household. Their skilled technicians can tackle a variety of systems, such as gas, electric, and geothermal.

In addition to their heating services, Northwest Plumbing Heating & AC also offers plumbing services throughout the year. Homeowners can count on their skills for problems like water heater repair, drain cleaning, sump pump maintenance, and fixing leaks. They also provide 24-hour emergency services, ensuring plumbing and heater issues are resolved quickly. More information about their comprehensive plumbing services can be found online at northwestph.com/plumbing-services.

"Staying warm during winter isn't just about comfort; it's about creating a safe haven at home," said Bill Durand, General Manager of Northwest Plumbing, Heating & AC. "We are committed to offering reliable furnace repair and installation services, ensuring that residents can rely on us to keep their heating systems running optimally."

Recognizing that maintaining heating and plumbing can be costly, Northwest Plumbing Heating & AC partners with GreenSky® to offer customers flexible payment plans. This makes it easier for families to afford essential services without breaking the bank, and details about their financing options are available at northwestph.com/financing.

This winter, the company is also celebrating its 100th anniversary with a special "Deal of the Month." Customers who mention "Happy Birthday" when discussing new system installations can get $100 off. This promotion is a way for the company to honor its history while showing appreciation to customers, providing extra savings when many people are looking to improve their heating systems.

For those looking for more tips on keeping their heating systems in good shape during winter, a recent news article offers advice and recommendations. This piece highlights the need for a reliable service provider and is available for further reading at northwestph.com/news.

"As we enter our 100th year, we want to express gratitude to our community, which is why we're making sure our services, including affordable financing and special deals, are more accessible than ever," added Durand. "Our team is dedicated to delivering the high-quality service that customers expect and deserve."

Besides these efforts, Northwest Plumbing, Heating & AC promotes energy-efficient solutions that help lessen environmental impact while also improving home comfort. Their Service Partner Agreement provides regular check-ups and additional benefits, encouraging both efficiency and peace of mind.

Northwest Plumbing, Heating & AC is active in the community through its social media channels. People can learn about the company's services and see content with helpful tips and deals.
