Vancouver and Calgary-Based Agency Prepares for Third Audit in Q1 2025

VANCOUVER, BC and CALGARY, AB ? March 17, 2025 ? E-Cubed, a leading UX and enterprise web development agency, proudly maintains its SOC 2 Type 2 compliance, affirming its dedication to robust data security and information controls. As the first Kentico partner (https://www.e-cubed.com/kentico/) worldwide to earn this certification, E-Cubed is poised to complete its third audit by the end of Q1 2025, solidifying its reputation for reliable security practices.

Specializing in enterprise CMS development, including WordPress and Kentico, E-Cubed delivers customized solutions tailored to diverse client needs. Its SOC 2 Type 2 compliance?aligned with the AICPA?s Trust Services Criteria?ensures stringent security controls to safeguard customer data and reduce breach risks. In partnership with Drata, a top-tier compliance automation platform, E-Cubed enhances efficiency through streamlined control monitoring, evidence collection, and real-time security oversight.

?Our SOC 2 Type 2 compliance reflects our steadfast commitment to protecting client data,? said Steve Widen, President of E-Cubed. ?Drata?s platform provides continuous visibility into our security controls, ensuring compliance and fostering trust every step of the way.?

Validated through a rigorous audit, this compliance strengthens E-Cubed?s standing as a secure partner for enterprise clients. It goes beyond meeting standards, building confidence by minimizing risks and showcasing proactive security management. Clients can explore E-Cubed?s offerings at www.e-cubed.com and learn more about Drata?s compliance automation at drata.com.

?Our sustained focus on SOC 2 Type 2 compliance lays the groundwork for industry-leading security,? Widen added. ?Clients can trust us to deliver innovative solutions while upholding the highest standards.?
