Home Instead New Forest Expands Home Care Services, Providing Personalised Support for Seniors in New Forest

March 05, 2025

March 05, 2025 -
New Forest, UK ? Home Instead New Forest is pleased to announce the expansion of its Home Care for the Elderly services, ensuring that seniors in New Forest receive high-quality, personalised care with minimal wait times. This expansion is made possible by Home Instead?s team of locally based care professionals, who are ready to support seniors in maintaining their independence at home.

With a strong reputation for delivering compassionate and tailored in-home care, Home Instead New Forest is now reaching more families who need reliable and professional assistance. The increased availability of home care services means that elderly individuals in the community can now access care more quickly, ensuring they receive the support they need without unnecessary delays.

?Our goal has always been to provide seniors with the care and dignity they deserve while allowing them to remain in the comfort of their own homes,? said Tim Oswald, owner of Home Instead New Forest. ?With this expansion, we are able to serve more individuals in the community, ensuring they receive timely, professional, and compassionate care tailored to their needs.?

Home Instead New Forest?s home care services are designed to support seniors with a range of daily activities, including personal care, companionship, meal preparation, medication reminders, and specialised dementia care. Each care plan is personalised to match the unique needs of each client, ensuring a high standard of care that prioritises well-being and comfort.

One of the key advantages of Home Instead New Forest?s services is the availability of care professionals who live within the area. This ensures a prompt response to care requests and fosters a strong sense of community support.

?Our care professionals are dedicated, experienced, and, most importantly, local to New Forest,? added Oswald. ?This not only allows for minimal wait times but also means our clients are cared for by professionals who understand the area and its people.?

Clients and their families have already shared positive experiences about Home Instead New Forest?s services: ?The care my father receives is outstanding. His caregivers are kind, patient, and truly dedicated to his well-being. We feel incredibly lucky to have found Home Instead.?

?Home Instead New Forest has given my mum a new lease on life. The companionship and support she receives have made such a difference, and the team is always there when we need them.?

Home Instead New Forest is proud to uphold the highest standards of care, working in accordance with the Care Quality Commission (CQC) to ensure safe and effective services. The team?s dedication to excellence has established Home Instead New Forest as a trusted provider in the region.
