Wright at Home Roofing & Exteriors Earns Esteemed James Hardie Preferred Contractor Status

March 17, 2025

March 17, 2025 -
Wright at Home Roofing & Exteriors, based in Minneapolis, Minnesota, has once again been named a James Hardie Preferred Contractor. This recognition underscores their commitment to delivering top-notch quality in siding installations. As part of a select group of contractors, they are known for their expertise in fiber cement siding, which is both durable and aesthetically pleasing. To learn more about their comprehensive range of services, including roofing and window installation, visit their website.

The James Hardie Contractor Alliance program requires a commitment to excellence and skill to achieve Preferred status. Wright at Home Roofing & Exteriors earned this recognition by completing 24 full siding projects, totaling 60,000 square feet of James Hardie siding. As a James Hardie Siding Installer in Minneapolis, this accomplishment assures customers that their installations meet high industry standards, using the best materials available. Their vast experience in siding installation is further supported by their role as a James Hardie Preferred Partner, which also includes access to a siding visualizer tool on their website.

Wright at Home Roofing & Exterior is deeply committed to quality, assuring homeowners of lasting craftsmanship and a strong connection with the renowned siding manufacturer. The company is part of a program where all siding installations come with a strong 30-year siding warranty from James Hardie, along with a Lifetime Labor Warranty from Wright at Home Roofing & Exterior. This offers clients peace of mind, knowing their homes are well-protected.

Addison Kaasa of Wright at Home Roofing & Exteriors shared, "Being recognized as a James Hardie Preferred Contractor is a testament to our team's hard work and unwavering commitment to quality. Our partnership with James Hardie not only affirms our expertise in siding installations but also ensures that our clients receive the best protection and beauty for their homes."

In addition to their installation services, Wright at Home Roofing & Exteriors offers an innovative siding visualizer tool. This tool allows homeowners to digitally interact with their home's exterior design, experimenting with different styles and colors to see how the final look will appear. It's a helpful feature for clients who want to make informed decisions about their home makeover projects. For more information on their window installation services, including Marvin and ProVia Windows, renowned for their energy efficiency and durability, visit their website.

Achieving renewed status as a James Hardie Preferred Contractor also highlights the company's focus on customer satisfaction and trust. Through careful installation processes and skilled craftsmanship, Wright at Home Roofing & Exteriors consistently provides not just quality results but also experiences that meet homeowners' needs for reliability. This dedication to excellence makes them a popular choice for exterior home renovations in Minneapolis and surrounding areas like Golden Valley, Blaine, and Maple Grove.

"We strive each day to uphold the standards that our clients depend on," Kaasa continued. "Maintaining our status as a James Hardie Preferred Contractor ensures we continue to lead with quality, offering solutions that address both functional and aesthetic needs of our clients."
