March 21, 2025

GARLAND, TX - March 21, 2025 -
Keathley Landscaping is excited to share its expanded range of services designed to meet the growing needs of clients looking for outdoor transformations in Wylie, Texas. Known for its comprehensive landscape design work, the company is now emphasizing its skills in building custom retaining walls and installing efficient lawn drainage systems. These new services are part of Keathley Landscaping's ongoing effort to help local residents create both functional and attractive outdoor spaces. For more information, please visit the Keathley Landscaping website.

One of the new highlights is their custom retaining wall construction. This service is designed to offer structures that not only support the landscape but also boost the visual appeal of a property. Keathley Landscaping has built a strong reputation as one of the top custom retaining wall builders in Wylie. Each project is carefully designed to blend seamlessly with the existing environment and enhance its look. Clients can find more information about this service on their website, which details their comprehensive landscaping solutions.

Another important service is lawn drainage installation Wylie, which aims to protect outdoor areas from the potential problems caused by excess water. Poor drainage can result in serious issues like flooding and foundation damage. The company uses techniques such as French drains and strategic lawn grading to make sure water is directed away from crucial areas, preserving both the health and appearance of lawns. Additional details about these solutions are available online, offering insight into their specialized approaches.

Logan Keathley, the company's founder, says, "Our team is committed to helping clients create their dream outdoor spaces. The expansion of our services, especially in custom retaining walls and drainage solutions, is a testament to our dedication to meeting the aesthetic and practical needs of homeowners in Wylie."

Besides these new services, Keathley Landscaping still offers a wide range of other options like installing patios, fences, and pergolas, along with comprehensive lawn care and maintenance. The company focuses on quality and client happiness, which has helped it build a strong reputation for customer service and creative landscape solutions.

To better serve its clients, Keathley Landscaping offers consultations to help homeowners understand their landscaping needs and identify the best solutions. This approach not only boosts confidence but also ensures that projects meet the client's precise expectations and specifications.

The company stands out for its high-quality work and affordable solutions. By maintaining efficient operations and utilizing expert knowledge, Keathley Landscaping Wylie Texas offers services that are both budget-friendly and top-notch.

"Creating a beautiful landscape should be within anyone's reach," notes Logan Keathley. "The satisfaction of our clients and their enjoyment of their outdoor spaces are central to what we do."

These newly concentrated services are part of Keathley Landscaping's larger mission to improve the look and usefulness of outdoor spaces in Dallas, Garland, Wylie, Plano, and surrounding areas.
