March 17, 2025

ALPHARETTA, GA - March 17, 2025 -
Horst Shewmaker, an established personal injury law firm located in Alpharetta, has made an exciting announcement. Every attorney in their personal injury team has been honored in the Georgia 2025 Super Lawyers and Rising Stars lists. This recognition showcases the firm's dedication to its clients and the skill of its lawyers in personal injury law. For more information about the firm and their comprehensive legal services, visit the Horst Shewmaker website at horstshewmaker.com.

The firm is committed to helping individuals involved in car accidents and other personal injury incidents. Horst Shewmaker provides a wide range of legal services for various cases, such as car and motorcycle accidents, dog bites, and brain injuries. Their goal is to help clients receive the compensation they deserve. Beyond legal representation, the firm also offers valuable resources like blogs, FAQs, news updates, and videos to guide clients through the complexities of personal injury law. Engage with these resources to gain deeper insights into personal injury matters through accessible content provided by the firm.

Michael W. Horst and Zachary S. Shewmaker have been named 2025 Super Lawyers, while Jarrett L. Miller and Torrie L. Dale are recognized as 2025 Rising Stars. This distinction highlights the passion and skill they bring to each case. Horst Shewmaker's reputation for putting clients first is at the heart of their continued success.

"Being included in the Super Lawyers and Rising Stars lists is an honor for our firm," said Zachary S. Shewmaker. "Our attorneys work tirelessly to champion the rights of our clients, and this acknowledgment validates our commitment to providing exemplary legal services in Alpharetta and beyond."

With over three decades of combined experience, Horst Shewmaker's team handles a wide range of cases. These include pedestrian accidents, wrongful death claims, and spinal injuries. They focus on the needs of their clients, providing guidance throughout the legal process and helping secure compensation for things like medical bills, lost income, and emotional suffering.

The Alpharetta office underscores its dedication to the local community by offering 24/7 legal support and free case reviews. This encourages clients to act quickly, understanding the urgency involved in filing personal injury claims. Quick legal action is often essential when seeking compensation for injuries and related losses.

Horst Shewmaker aims to simplify the legal journey for their clients through an array of resources. Whether it's informative blogs or instructional videos, they ensure clients are prepared and aware of their legal choices. This is part of their mission to offer accessible legal services that are centered around client needs.
