

Pinnacle Removals Elevates Service with New South London Depot in Hackbridge

April 02, 2025

HACKBRIDGE, UK - April 02, 2025 -
Pinnacle Removals and Storage, a company with more than fifty years of experience in the moving industry, is pleased to announce the opening of a new depot in Hackbridge, South London. This new facility includes both a warehouse and office, aimed at boosting services throughout South London. With its strategic location, the depot is set to serve the communities of Croydon, Mitcham, Sutton, Thornton Heath, and nearby areas, making access to national and international removals easier.

Sean Jacoby, the company director, shared his enthusiasm about this new development, stating, "We're delighted to be opening our new depot in South London. This expansion marks a key milestone in our growth strategy and will allow us to better serve our growing customer base across South London. With increased demand for both domestic and international removals, having a dedicated facility in South London will help us operate more efficiently and continue delivering the high standard of service we're known for."

The new depot provides a wide variety of services to meet the diverse moving needs of its clients. Whether you're moving locally within South London or planning a move across the UK, Pinnacle Removals is equipped to meet these needs efficiently. Their services include UK removals that are tailored to personal requirements, with a dedicated Move Co-ordinator to ensure a smooth experience from start to finish. Their UK removal services are flexible and competitively priced, providing exceptional care for each client's moving process.

Located at Sutton Business Park, the depot stands out as a prime spot for both residential and business clients looking for dependable removal services. The company's known flexibility and competitive pricing make it a popular choice for local moves. Plus, the depot's location near major transport routes supports the efficient operations needed for timely and effective relocation services.

Beyond local and national removal services, Pinnacle Removals also manages international moves. Helping clients relocate to countries like Australia, Canada, the USA, New Zealand, Italy, the Canary Islands and Cyprus, the company guides them through customs clearance and necessary documentation. This international service helps make sure clients can transition smoothly when starting their new lives abroad, navigating what can often be a complicated process. Clients can take advantage of their expert management of international relocations, including assistance with customs and documentation.

Additionally, the new site offers storage solutions for clients needing temporary space for their belongings during their move. This service ensures their items are kept safe and secure, giving them peace of mind during what can be a stressful time.

Pinnacle Removals is known for its personalized packing solutions, meeting various client needs and budgets. Their expertise in fine art removal, featuring specialized handling by professional packers, highlights their dedication to managing specific requirements with care and skill. Their 'white glove' service for fine art, collectables, and valuables underscores their commitment to meticulous and sensitive handling.

The new Hackbridge depot underscores Pinnacle Removals' commitment to offering high-quality removal services that lessen clients' moving concerns. With over 50 years of combined experience, the company continues to expand and adapt to meet client needs, investing in infrastructure that supports their strong reputation for reliability and quality.

Sean Jacoby pointed out the strategic advantages of the new depot, emphasizing its importance for the company's growth and its ability to handle increased demand. Situated at Sutton Business Park, the facility is well-positioned to take advantage of the lively South London market, offering clients tailored solutions and efficient service.

The opening of the Hackbridge depot shows Pinnacle Removals' dedication to growing and improving in an industry based on trust, skill, and flexibility. The facility is ready to meet the needs of both individuals and businesses across South London, providing local and international removal services with a focus on quality and care.
