

Holloway Removals Partners with Rabbitohs for Third Year ahead of Exciting Season

April 02, 2025

SYDNEY, NSW - April 02, 2025 -

Holloway Removals & Storage have proudly announced the continuation of its partnership with Rugby League legends, the South Sydney Rabbitohs, for the highly anticipated 2025 NRL season.

Now in their third consecutive year of collaboration, this season brings about an exciting new element to the partnership, with Holloway Removal's banners now being featured in home games. This bold new feature is a further testament to the genuine appreciation and mutual respect that Holloway and the Rabbitohs have for each other?s craft.

However, this enduring partnership goes beyond your typical sponsorship with Holloway Removals whole-heartedly committed to supporting one of Sydney?s most iconic rugby league teams. In fact, the Holloway team have been spotted multiple times cheering on the boys from the stands and are often found sharing their support on the Holloway Instagram.

The partnership is undoubtedly a testament to Holloway Removals' current success, with the company reaching goals far beyond what they ever originally imagined, when they were just a one-man band. However, now after 13 years of experience and an expansion across Australia's major cities, it seems only fitting that Holloway Removals & Storage is working with fellow local superstars, like Rabbitohs.

Additionally, having managed the relocation of the Rabbitohs team from their grounds in Redfern to their state-of-the-art $58 million facility in Heffron Park, featuring a gym, an internal shop, and multiple meeting spaces, it?s undeniable that the leading Sydney removalists have deemed themselves worthy of the partnership.

?They have become an integral part of the Rabbitohs business chamber and help service the removal storage needs of the other corporate sponsors and partners of our network. So, we?re absolutely stoked to work with Holloway? - states Angus Calvert, Commercial and Strategic Lead for Rabbitohs.

Through the years, Holloway have also dedicated their expertise and services to relocating a number of Rabbitohs players both locally and interstate, setting them up for their new life in South Sydney with the same care and consideration that they would give to any of their customers. This level of commitment to the Rabbitohs team goes far beyond your regular sponsorship, highlighting their company's true support of the Rabbitohs spirit and their dedication to providing a standard of service that is incomparable to other removals companies.

With their rich history and passionate fan base, the South Sydney superstars align perfectly with Holloway Removals? community focused approach to business, making it a partnership that is undoubtedly set to continue to flourish in the future.

Sharing the company?s excitement for the renewed partnership, A Holloway spokesperson was quick to make a statement - "We're thrilled to continue our journey with the Rabbitohs. The team?s strength, resilience and determination to succeed are also values that we hope are brought to every one of our moves. This partnership is about more than just business, it's about supporting local heroes and bringing people together."

Already performing excellently this season, the Rabbitohs have won 3 of their 4 games so far, leaving the Holloway team along with their hundreds of thousands of fans eager to see how the rest of the season unfolds. Whichever way it goes, one thing is certain - the Rabbitohs can be sure to rely on the unwavering support of Holloway Removals, with yet another year of powerful collaboration well and truly underway.
