2nd Attic Expands Self Storage Solutions in Pottstown, PA with New Facilities

April 24, 2025

April 24, 2025 -
2nd Attic Self Storage has made significant strides in expanding its footprint in southeastern Pennsylvania with four new facilities located primarily in Pottstown, as well as additional sites in Boyertown and Barto. They are designed to be a comprehensive answer to both personal and business storage needs. This expansion highlights the company's dedication to providing convenient and secure storage solutions for the local community.

Each 2nd Attic Self Storage center comes packed with features that simplify storing one's stuff and keeping it safe. The service includes things like automated gates that use personal security codes and keypads to boost security. This setup ensures that only the right people can enter, giving peace of mind to everyone using the facilities.

"At 2nd Attic, we prioritize the safety and convenience of our customers. Our facilities are equipped with state-of-the-art security systems, including 24-hour video surveillance and perimeter security fencing," said Denise Christman, a representative of the company. "We understand the importance of protecting our customers' valuables while offering them utmost convenience in accessing their storage units."

The company provides a variety of storage options with sizes from 5x8 to 20x24. They also offer space for RVs and boats at certain locations. One big benefit of using 2nd Attic Self Storage is the easy drive-up access, which makes loading and unloading simple.

Besides private storage, these facilities are set up to handle business deliveries. For instance, the Pottstown South location accepts deliveries for businesses. This is especially helpful for those who can't be there to sign for packages during regular hours, making it a smart choice for local businesses. To learn more about their business services, including delivery acceptance, check out the relevant section on their website.

Mrs. Christman further added, "Expanding our service offerings is a testament to our dedication to the Pottstown community. By providing 24/7 access and diverse storage solutions, we hope to meet the varied needs of our clients, whether they are storing personal items or business-related goods."

The company's premises are well-lit, which enhances security and creates a safe environment for anyone accessing their units at any time. This attention to detail aims to offer a storage experience that customers can trust.

Located at 1028 Commerce Dr., the main office in Pottstown does more than just manage operations across the four sites. It also acts as the central hub for customers looking for information or assistance. This setup ensures seamless service and easy access to all that 2nd Attic Self Storage offers.

Through its expansion and focus on services that center around the customer, 2nd Attic Self Storage is strengthening its position as a top option for storage solutions in the Pottstown, PA area. This move shows their ongoing dedication to meeting storage needs while keeping customer satisfaction front and center. It not only boosts their operational abilities but also cements them as a trusted service provider in the region.

For customers looking for flexible, secure, and easy-to-access storage in Pottstown and its surrounding areas, 2nd Attic Self Storage is ready to deliver. By focusing on quality and convenience, the company sets a standard in the area and stays committed to excellent service. For more detailed information, visit the 2nd Attic Self Storage website.
