

Continuum Health IT Earns Top Recognition in the 2025 KLAS Report for Healthcare IT Consulting

April 15, 2025

April 15, 2025 -
Continuum Health IT, a leading healthcare IT consulting and staffing firm, is excited to announce that it has been named the #2 performer in the 2025 Best in KLAS report for Health IT (HIT) Staffing. This recognition highlights the firm?s exceptional performance in providing staffing solutions for healthcare organizations across the nation.

The prestigious Best in KLAS ranking, based on feedback from healthcare clients, evaluates vendors on a variety of key criteria, including loyalty, operational performance, and overall value. Continuum Health IT received an impressive overall score of 97.2, surpassing both the segment and professional services averages.

?We are incredibly honored to be ranked as a top performer by KLAS,? said Jeff Macko, CEO of Continuum Health IT. ?This ranking is a direct result of our team's dedication to providing excellent service and building strong relationships with our clients. We are grateful for the trust our clients place in us, and we look forward to continuing to exceed their expectations in the years to come.?

Commitment to Client Success and Quality

The firm?s success is driven by its unwavering commitment to client satisfaction. Continuum Health IT received perfect marks in several key areas, with 100% of healthcare IT consulting clients reporting that they would choose Continuum again, a testament to the strength of their relationships and the quality of services delivered.

?We believe that our success comes from our dedication to our clients and our talented team of professionals,? Macko continued. ?By continually focusing on building strong partnerships and delivering high-value, results-driven solutions, we?re able to help our clients meet their IT staffing needs and achieve their goals.?

The Continuum Difference

Continuum Health IT stands out by providing healthcare organizations with access to a highly skilled pool of IT analysts, project managers, and directors. The firm?s strategic staffing approach combines hands-on partnerships with flexible, expert support, ensuring that clients receive the IT talent they need to excel.

Maintaining a positive internal culture has been key to Continuum?s continued success. ?Our team is the cornerstone of everything we do,? said Macko. ?By creating a supportive, inclusive, and collaborative work environment, we ensure that both our clients and our employees can thrive.?

Looking Ahead: Building on Momentum

As the healthcare IT landscape continues to evolve, Continuum Health IT remains dedicated to meeting new challenges head-on. ?While IT spending has slowed in certain areas, we see it as an opportunity to strengthen our processes and deepen our client relationships,? said Macko. ?The recognition from KLAS affirms that we?re on the right path as we continue to grow and evolve.?

Looking to the future, Continuum is focused on expanding its reach, increasing its service offerings, and continuing to lead the industry in client satisfaction.
