July 30, 2025

Peoria, AZ - July 30, 2025 -
Cool Blew Inc., a family-run business based in Peoria, Arizona, has been serving the community since 2002. They have announced that they're expanding their emergency commercial AC repair services in Goodyear. This move highlights their dedication to offering top-notch HVAC solutions to businesses around the area. Known for their skill in air conditioning repair, installation, and maintenance, Cool Blew Inc. stands out with its prompt response times and dependable problem-solving for AC issues customers face.

Scott Proctor, the Operations Manager, shared, "Our main goal is to provide our clients with exceptional service when they need it most. By expanding our emergency commercial AC repair services in Goodyear, we're reinforcing that promise. We know how a broken AC unit can impact a business, especially with Arizona's hot weather."

The company isn't stopping there; they are also extending their emergency commercial AC repair in Paradise Valley. Their aim is to offer businesses here the same speedy and efficient service they are known for in other locations. This effort is all about cutting down on downtime and keeping businesses comfortable and running smoothly.

Scott Proctor commented further, "We're excited to bring our emergency commercial AC repair to Paradise Valley. Our team of skilled technicians has the know-how and tools to tackle any AC emergency, helping our clients maintain smooth operations with few disruptions."

Cool Blew Inc. provides a wide range of HVAC services, including the repair and installation of both residential and commercial air conditioning systems. They also offer heating services and plumbing solutions. As a dealer for well-known brands, they use advanced technology to deliver effective and sustainable solutions. Their 24-hour emergency services ensure businesses can get help whenever it's needed.

In Goodyear, businesses now have access to improved services designed to quickly address any air conditioning emergencies. Whether it's a simple fix or a complicated installation, the team at Cool Blew Inc. brings extensive expertise to every project, ensuring customers are satisfied and relieved.

A standout feature of their service is the use of the latest technology across all their work. This not only includes their HVAC services but also their wide-ranging solar solutions. As a certified solar panel installer, Cool Blew Inc. offers initial consultations, system design, installation, and repairs, which supports sustainable energy choices for residential and commercial clients alike.

Additionally, they offer a comprehensive range of plumbing services. This includes everything from fixing leaks and installing water heaters to regular maintenance and emergency help. Together with their HVAC skills, they serve as a versatile provider for homeowners and businesses.

The company's focus on quality is evident in their service plans, designed to extend the lifespan of HVAC systems and save customers money on long-term utility costs. Cool Blew Inc. knows how crucial reliable air conditioning is in Arizona, and they aim to provide excellent service with every client interaction.
