Braun Cathie Kruzel PC, a well-respected law firm based in Scottsdale, Arizona, is sharing the news of Gregory M. Kruzel's retirement. After dedicating nearly 43 years to the legal field, Greg is set to step back by the beginning of summer 2023. His retirement has been planned for years to maintain a steady service for the firm's clients. His work in estate planning and his contributions to the legal community have been highly valued.

Greg Kruzel first became friends with his long-time partner, Bradley S. Braun, at a dinner with the Central Arizona Estate Planning Council in January 1994. Their shared passion for estate planning and legal excellence led them to establish Braun Cathie Kruzel PC in 1999. The firm expanded in 2011 with the arrival of Kelley L. Cathie, who later became a named partner and managing partner in 2021. Additionally, Will M. Graves and Garrett Hable have joined the team, collectively bringing many years of experience to the firm.

Braun Cathie Kruzel PC is designed to offer a wide range of expertise in estate planning, business organization, succession planning, and trust administration. The firm has a clear succession plan that aims to provide ongoing support to clients and future generations. Experienced attorneys at the firm understand the varying needs and perspectives of their clientele.

Looking back on his career, Greg expressed his reflections on retirement. "It has been an honor and a privilege to work alongside my remarkable colleagues and to serve our clients. I am immensely grateful for the support and trust placed in me over the years," Greg said. "As I transition to the next chapter, I look forward to continuing the friendships I've built, whether on the hiking trail or over a glass of wine."

Commenting on Greg's influence, Tiffany Foster, a spokesperson for Braun Cathie Kruzel PC, said, "Greg's commitment to our clients and our firm has been a cornerstone of our success. His vision and leadership have shaped our direction and laid a foundation for continued excellence. We wish him all the best in this new stage of life."
