Main Graphics Expands Large-Format Commercial Printing in Orange County

May 12, 2025

IRVINE, CA - May 12, 2025 -

Main Graphics has announced a big step forward by expanding its large-format printing services. This move solidifies its place as a key player in the Main Graphics Printing industry. The expansion responds to more businesses in Orange County, from Irvine to Anaheim, needing bigger print solutions. By investing in new technology, Main Graphics now delivers higher quality and efficiency in a wider range of printing needs, including banners, posters, and trade show displays.

Thanks to this upgrade, Main Graphics can now handle custom prints as wide as 100 inches. They use tough materials like vinyl, canvas, and polyester, paired with strong, UV-cured inks. This is great news for businesses wanting their marketing materials to stand out. "Delivering exceptional quality and service to our clients is our main goal," said George Haggarty from Main Graphics. "This expansion enables us to provide more advanced options at competitive prices, making us a solid choice for those in search of Commercial Printing Orange In County."

This improved service is part of Main Graphics' strategy to meet the rising need for large-scale visual tools in Orange County. It aligns with their goal of expanding their services while keeping their high standards intact. For more details about their extensive range of print solutions, including business card printing, brochure printing and others, visit Main Graphics.

Beyond large-format printing, Main Graphics offers a wide range of services. These include digital printing, apparel printing, promotional items, and direct mail services. They are known for their custom design services, which cater to the specific needs of businesses by offering practical yet appealing solutions.

In addition to physical expansion, Main Graphics has upgraded its operations. New equipment means faster service and the ability to tackle complex printing tasks with precision. This means clients will get their products quicker without a drop in quality.

George Haggarty shared his excitement about the upgrades, noting how important innovation is in meeting clients' needs. "With these new resources, Main Graphics is positioned to meet and surpass the growing expectations of our diverse clientele," he said. "By bolstering our Main Graphics Boosts Large Format Printing Services, we reinforce our commitment to being a trusted partner in the commercial printing landscape."

The expansion at Main Graphics not only addresses current market demands but also lays the groundwork for future growth. This step strengthens their competitive edge in the commercial printing field while maintaining the quality and service that's made them well-known. Main Graphics continues to evolve, setting itself up to tackle both challenges and opportunities within the industry, from creative design solutions to dependable direct mail services.

As they keep improving their capabilities and expanding their services, Main Graphics is changing how businesses in Orange County think about their printing needs. Stakeholders and clients can look forward to faster, more versatile, and high-quality print solutions. Main Graphics is committed to setting the standard for commercial printing in the region.
