Ben Barraco, owner of Home Instead Redbridge & Walthamstow, shared his enthusiasm about the expanded service: ?Our live-in care service provides families with peace of mind, knowing their loved ones are receiving compassionate and professional care in familiar surroundings. Our team takes the time to understand each individual?s needs, ensuring that care is not only practical but also enhances well-being and independence.?

What sets Home Instead?s live-in care apart is the commitment to matching clients with care professionals who complement their personality and lifestyle. This approach ensures consistency in care and fosters strong bonds between clients and their carers, helping to maintain routines and comfort.

The dedication of Home Instead?s team has been recognised by families across the region. Louise G, the granddaughter of a former client, shared her experience: ?The Home Instead team are absolutely fantastic. They go that extra mile and for a long time enabled us to keep Nan in her own home. They matched carers for her and kept the continuity. They add a personal touch and deliver first-class care with friendly and approachable staff. They almost feel like friends now! Some of the team have even visited my nan in her care home, in their own time and not for payment, which we have been very grateful for and is definitely something that seems above and beyond!?

This dedication to client satisfaction is echoed by Azra N, whose father received care from Home Instead: ?The team reacted quickly and supported us through the process. The specific carers were chosen very thoughtfully for the job of caring for my father to ensure he did not become anxious or disorientated. The carers were amazing at being patient, kind and very nurturing towards my father. I have had an excellent experience with this team, they have supported my father and me through this caring journey and I am very grateful.?

Home Instead Redbridge & Walthamstow understands that finding care quickly is essential, particularly when unexpected circumstances arise. By working with a team of local care professionals, the service ensures minimal wait times for families in need of immediate support.

?We know how important it is for families to access care when they need it most,? added Ben Barraco. ?Our live-in care service is available without unnecessary delays, ensuring that clients can receive the support they need from professionals who truly care.?

Elaine M, the niece of a former client, highlighted the exceptional service provided by the team: ?My Aunt had this service for just over four years and I can?t praise or thank them enough for their wonderful care. From the care staff, office staff and manager, their support and consideration of my Aunt?s needs was always excellent and very often above the call of duty. What a truly wonderful service.
