Abreu Movers is a moving company providing clients with moving services across the USA. They have now announced a new feature to their service; clients are now able to pay for the services in Bitcoin.

Allegedly "New York City's #1 moving company", Abreu Movers is an NYC based moving company providing clients with local and long distance moving services. Having served in the area for quite some time, the company claims that their expert movers have a combined experience of 200 years in local and long distance moving. Additional services being provided by the company include fine art relocation, piano moving and storage units etc.

With a full list of services available on the website at <http://www.abreumovers.com/>, Abreu Movers has now announced new feature to their service that they anticipate will make the service even more convenient for their customers. The company has now enabled an option for their clients to make payments easily and securely via Bitcoin. The spokesperson for Abreu Movers made an official press statement in which he discussed the company's work ethics and the importance of the new feature.

"Our combined 200 years of experience serving as a local moving company in the New York City area ensures that the moving process is coordinated, performed and completed proficiently by our professional movers here at Abreu Movers. Unlike other New York City movers, Abreu Movers strives to keep the customers on budget, on time and most important - satisfied. Our goal is 100% customer satisfaction and we proudly show it by the attitude and skills of our staff," stated a spokesperson.

He added to his statement, "We have announced a new feature to our service that makes the experience even more smooth and hassle-free for our clients. We are now accepting payment by Bitcoin to make sure that the payment is always made in a way most convenient to the client."
