Atiyeh Bros Portland Rug and Carpet Cleaning has announced it will keep offering its trusted area rug repair services to those who need expert care for their Oriental and area rugs. With more than forty years under their belt, the team at Atiyeh Bros provides a full range of repair options. These include hand edge repair, hand end repair, patching, and binding and serging. All the work is done in-house by a dedicated team, ensuring close attention is paid to every detail.

Based in Tigard, Portland, and Eugene, Oregon, Atiyeh Bros serves a large region, offering cleaning and repair services to rug owners. Their promise of quality is evident from the glowing reviews from happy customers. One recent 5-star review praised both the craftsmanship and customer service of the company.

"We have dedicated decades to perfecting our technique in area rug repair," said a representative from the company. "Our team is committed to restoring the beauty and functionality of each rug while preserving its unique history." Beyond just making rugs last longer, Atiyeh Bros is mindful of the cultural and artistic value these rugs hold. The skilled team relies on traditional techniques to care for rugs from places like India, China, France, and America, ensuring they retain their original look and feel.

Besides area rug repair, Atiyeh Bros also offers wall-to-wall carpet cleaning, upholstery cleaning, and advice on removing stains. Their website includes a gallery showing before-and-after shots of their repair work, illustrating the impressive transformations they can achieve.

The company stays in touch with its community by being active on social media platforms such as Houzz, Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, YouTube, and Instagram. This not only broadens their reach but also gives them a way to get feedback and respond to questions from customers. For more details about their area rug repair services, visit their website to explore the full range of services they provide.

Atiyeh Bros provides more than just repair and cleaning services. They give flooring advice and have a user-friendly online form where customers can request quotes. Their quick service and attention to detail build trust and loyalty among their clients.

The company remains committed to meeting their customers' changing needs while keeping high standards. "Our goal is to ensure that each customer is satisfied with the services they receive from us," the representative added. Hearing positive reviews motivates their continued dedication to excellent work.

Looking to the future, Atiyeh Bros plans to uphold its tradition of quality while also embracing new technology and methods for rug repair. Their mission to restore and care for rugs reflects a deep respect for the craft and history behind each one. Thanks to their years of experience and focus on customer service, Atiyeh Bros is a reliable choice for anyone needing rug repair and cleaning.
